By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—Earl Martin Loomis was hanged at Folsom Prison today for the murder of Mrs. Marie Hollcroft in this city. As he stepped to the gallows he greeted the witnesses to the execution with a "Hello, boy!" He had a big smile on his face. He was pronounced dead in eleven minutes and twenty-five seconds. He refused religious aid before the execution.

I Leave This World Without Bitterness,
—LOUIS BUNDY

By Associated Press.
SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Nov. 5.—Louis Bundy, 20 years old, was hanged today at San Quentin penitentiary for the murder of Harold Ziesche, a 15-year-old messenger, whom he waylaid and beat to death in Los Angeles in December, 1913.

Bundy's age at the time of the murder was made the basis of more than the usual number of pleas for clemency.

Bundy was a high school athlete. It was brought out at the trial in Los Angeles that the motive of the murder was robbery, and that Bundy planned to buy a girl a Christmas present with the proceeds.

Before being taken from the condemned cell, Bundy issued a statement in which he said he had done a great wrong and that he was sorry for it. He said he held no ill-feelings against any one and asked for forgiveness from everybody.

BUNDY DIES SLOWLY.

Bundy was pronounced dead fifteen minutes after the trap had been sprung. This was said to be the longest time since the condemned man had remained hanging at San Quentin before the final beat of his heart. The trap was sprung at 10:10 a.m.

Just as Bundy shot through the trap, Lester Schrader, a photographer, from Paso Robles, fainted and had to be carried by guards from the room.

Bundy was accompanied to the scaffold by Father Edward Brady, of Los Angeles, his spiritual adviser. Father Brady had been with Bundy since Wednesday. The last relative to see Bundy was his sister Josephine, who said good-bye yesterday. It is understood relatives are to take charge of the body and that it is to be taken to Los Angeles.

Bundy's statement follows:

"I have done a great wrong and am sorry for it. I had hoped that the law would see a way to let me have a chance, because I would like to have shown the world what I could do."

"I had hopes and aspirations the same as anybody else, but since the law must be carried out I accept it and place myself in the hands of God."

"I want to thank everybody who has been good to me—officials of the prison, the men of the prison and the school children who wrote to me. I want to say that I leave this world without enmity or bitterness toward anybody and I ask for forgiveness from everybody whom I have injured and forgive everybody who ever injured me."

The pleas of A. J. Pilsbury, chairman of the California Industrial Accident Commission; A. J. Wallace, former Lieutenant-governor; Edward W. Hopkins, county assessor of Los Angeles county; Rev. Harold S. Tuttle, the Rev. Franklin K. Baker and hundreds of school children failed to save Louis Bundy.

A brother of Hopkins' married Bundy's sister, so Hopkins took a lead part in the efforts to save the boy from the hangman's noose. The sister also made a desperate attempt to save Bundy.

His mother died heartbroken soon after the murder.

The state advisory board of pardons, however, decided in this case, as in the case of Earl Loomis, that "age alone in cases where the crime is so atrocious is not sufficient to justify a commutation of sentence."

Kelley Recall Paper
Causes New Arrest

Benjamin J. Perry, one of the circulators of the recall petition against Supervisor Joseph M. Kelley and the petition against the removal of the Court House, was arrested today at Tenth and Market streets by Police Inspectors McSorley, Enright and Williamson and charged with violation of Section 648 of the Penal Code, which refers to misrepresentation of facts regarding such petition. The complaint against Perry was sworn to by Mrs. Annie Mahoney, 1119 East Fifteenth street, and Mary Lynch, 68 Fairview street.

Perry was arraigned in the police court this morning and his case was continued until November 17 for preliminary examination. The arrest of Perry is the second of its character recently. Sumner Britton, another real selector, having been arrested upon complaint of George Adams, Esq., is out on $200 bail.

The parties interested in circulating the petitions have until November 8 to file the remainder of the papers.

:0: :0: :0: :0: :0: Bryan Denounces Wilson's Policy

NAVAL PLANS MENACE TO SAFETY

Former Secretary of State Answers Speech

Challenge to Religion,
He Says of U.S.
Defense

I have read the President's speech at New York with sorrow and concern. *

He has announced a policy which has never before been adopted in this country and never endorsed by any party in the country. *

From my view of the subject, the plan which he proposes is not only a departure from our traditions, but a reversal of our national policy.

The country is not threatened from any quarter. Why encourage the nations of Europe in their fatal folly by imitating them? Why impose upon the Western Hemisphere a policy so disastrous?

There has not been a time in fifty years when there was less reason to add to the expenses of the army and navy, for we are not only without an enemy, but our preparedness is increasing relatively as other nations enhance themselves. —From Bryan's reply to the President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Former Secretary of State Bryan came out squarely against President Wilson's national defense plan today in a formal statement in which he took issue with the president's views as expressed last night before the Manhattan club in New York. "A departure from our traditions; a reversal of our national policy; a menace to our peace and safety, and a challenge to the spirit of Christianity which teaches us to influence others by example, rather than by exciting fear," is Bryan's view of the national defense plan.

The former secretary of state's statement, which reiterates views he has previously expressed on the subject of preparation for war, was followed by the opening gun in the fight which administration leaders expect in Congress against adoption of the plan. Bryan's statement says:

"He says that his position is different from that of the private individual, in that the individual is free to speak his own thoughts and risk his own opinion. This sentence is a little obscure. Insofar as he expresses his own opinion, he does not differ from the private citizen except that he speaks under a sense of official responsibility, but where a nation's fate is involved in a policy every private citizen who loves his country and tries to serve it is conscious of responsibility. The president will not assume that he is more deeply interested in the welfare of his country than the millions who elected him to be fit to rule being his spokesman. And if, as he evidently believes, he is giving voice to the opinions of his countrymen, he is, of course, anxious to have them frank with him as he has been with them. How otherwise can he know whether he represents or misrepresents their views?"

POLICY IS NEW.

"He has announced a policy which has never before been adopted in this country and never endorsed by any party in the country and he has no way of knowing until he hears from the public. His appeal is not to any party but, as he says, to all shades of opinion." He asks for the hearty support of the country, meaning, of course, that he wants the support provided the people favor the policy which he has outlined. He could not, of course, ask them to support a policy which they did not endorse.

From my view of the subject, the plan which he proposes is not only a departure from our traditions, but a reversal of our national policy.

It is not only a menace to our peace and safety, but a challenge to the spirit of Christianity, which teaches us to influence others by example, rather than by exciting fear.

The president says that we should be prepared, not for aggression, but for defense. That is the ground upon which all preparation for war is made.

What nation has ever prepared for war on the theory that it was preparing for aggression? It is only fair to assume that the European rulers who are involved in the present war thought that they were contrib-

SLAYS WIFE, BLIND CHILD, SHOOTSELF

SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—George S. Roberts, a plumber, aged 45, killed his wife and blind daughter at the family home in Lucile street early today, fatally injured another daughter, probably fatally, injured a son and then shot himself dead.

It is believed that Roberts suddenly went insane because of a recent physical injury. Mrs. Roberts and her son apparently were asleep in an upstairs bedroom when attacked. Mrs. Roberts died without a struggle, but the boy, after being struck with the ax, must have strangled with his father. The boy was found on the floor some distance from his bed and bruises on the father's neck and arms showed that the son had fought for life.

Leaving the son for dead, Roberts proceeded to the ground floor bedrooms, shot his daughters, Villa and Ella.

The latter has been blind sixteen years. It is believed the daughters were awakened by the struggle in the room upstairs, for the body of the blind girl was found just inside the door of her room.

California gave the Washington football team a rousing and royal welcome last night upon their arrival in this city preparatory to the first annual California-Washington game.

Washington Team in Secret Practice at Berkeley

Coch Captain Gilmore Dobie: "We have not the slightest idea as to what to expect from California. From what I hear California has a heavy team and is endowed with a world of speed. These two things in the right combination are the greatest in the modern football game. We look for a hard game and will be thankful to win by a small margin."

Coch Jimmie Schaeffer: "History has proved that a winning football eleven cannot be developed in one season. We know nothing of the strength of the Washington team. We have done and will do our best tomorrow."

Captain Ray Hunt: "We expect a hard game in fact, one of the hardest Washington will ever play."

Captain Cliff Canfield: "Although we are ignorant of how good Washington is, except by report, what we hear of them makes no feel that there will be an uphill fight tomorrow. We are green, but there is a world of the old California spirit in the team which will more than overbalance this."

Myers was tried three months ago on a charge of kidnapping 3-year-old Gerald Warner, son of Miss Agnes Bendegard, who alleged that Myers was the child's father. The boy was taken away from Oakland last February. Miss Bendegard accused Myers. The jury disagreed.

Judge Ogden dismissed the case.

Miss Bendegard recovered her son last September through the receipt of an anonymous communication following the first trial of Myers.

BENDEGARD KIDNAPING CASE ENDED

The picture of a heart-broken mother longing for her child who had been spirited away from her, and a picture of the same mother with her child back in her arms are two different views to present to a possibly sympathetic jury, according to the reasoning of Assistant District Attorney James M. Koford, who today obtained a dismissal of the charges of kidnapping against Joseph S. Myers, a wealthy realty man.

GREETING IS GIVEN LADY ABERDEEN

Oakland Receives Famous Delegates to Council

Address of Kate Waller
Barrett Opens
Session

The International Council of Women, headed by Lord and Lady Aberdeen and vanguard by a group of distinguished foreign visitors, received all the honors of a victorious caravan today when the delegates arrived for a day of speeches and festivities in Oakland. Throngs of prominent men and women representing various activities gathered to meet them.

At 11 o'clock Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, M. D., president of the National Council of Women, formally opened the day in the crowded south-room of Hotel Oakland. The Marquis and Marchioness of Aberdeen, who had been attending the University of California meeting as spectators, did not appear on the scene until after the noon hour, when the Berkeley session had ended.

Following the series of addresses the delegates adjourned to the Ivory Ballroom, where, under the auspices of the County Auxiliary to the International Board of the Exchange, a brilliant luncheon was held in honor of Lord and Lady Aberdeen.

Leading spirits from various organizations—commercial, civic and social—and authorities on social conditions from far lands, contributed to the series of talks on topics of interest to the aims of the council, which is focusing its attention this year on cementing relations between the native born and alien women of any country.

Mrs. Ethel Adens, president of the playground board of directors, was a speaker at the morning session, telling the gathering her ideas on "Recreation as a Means of Progress."

Other speakers and speakers at the same session included Mrs. Edwin Owen, president of Dell Club, who spoke on "Beginnings of a Cultural Movement"; Mrs. George Ramey of Berkeley, who discussed the International Congress of Literature; and Madame Gamarnikas, who described conditions surrounding "Greek Women."

LADY ABERDEEN CENTER.

Lady Aberdeen, around whose personality has surged most of the interest of listeners at all the council sessions on the other side of the bay, was again the central figure, sharing honors with her distinguished husband, the former Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

At the luncheon, which was one of the most brilliant functions ever held in this city, both spoke informally on "Social Conditions in Ireland," describing generally the work that had been accomplished through the women of the country.

The round table, at which the guests of honor, together with a number of officers of the Council and of the Alameda Auxiliary were seated, was artistically adorned with an arrangement of autumnal foliage and golden blossoms, carrying out the French trencher, Mrs. A. C. Posey.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—By wireless to Sayville. It is officially reported that the Bulgarians have completely defeated at a point northeast of Philippes, the French forces which were landed at Saloniki.

Part of the French contingent was routed and the others were made prisoners. The first of the French prisoners have arrived at Kustendil.

General Advance Is Claimed by Berlin

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—By wireless to Sayville. Recapture of a trench northeast of Le Megeil in the Champagne district, of which the French had held since October 24, was officially announced by German army headquarters today.

A counter-attack by the French against positions captured by the Germans to the north of Massiges failed with heavy losses to the attacking forces.

Capture of three French officers and nine men together with eight machine guns is reported. The statement adds:

"Field Marshal French said in an official report:

"It can be deduced from the casualty lists of seven German battalions which participated in the Le Megeil battle, that their losses were 30 per cent of their effective."

were charged by cavalry and our mates before they could reline their shattered ranks to re-take the attack at Malakrena.

The 15th the Austro-German troops up the Morava Valley had crossed only the Ljubava bridge on the river. The next day extended as far as Azalea. Pafet on the 21st. The total advance in this section in four weeks, scarcely a third of distance to Paracan, where a junction with the Bulgarians must be made by way of the Uzna Valley, while the Bulgarians in this section advanced only as far as the line Zajecar-Negove railway. Serbians' situation is serious, we have no other intention than that until the last."

CANNON BATTER WAY.

In resistance to the Austro-Germans, the most characteristic according to travellers who arrived here from the front, the forces under Field Marshal von Mackensen, number only 150,000, they are with such a tremendous weight that they are able to batter hills into shapeless masses with their twelve-inch mortars, and a constant cloudburst of shrapnel which the Serbs are forced to slow down without even seeing their shells. The native troops experts in the fighting take advantage of every natural position of strength, however, forcing the Austro-Germans to dislodge them and giving no ground until compelled to do so. Their spirit is courageous, not desperate.

The journey from Nis to Smederevo is practically easier than the sea, requiring only about three days of transport. must be employed over the mountains to Prusina and Prusen through Abrau to Belgrade and Monastir. At Monastir there is a road, and in the 15th the Serbs have received the first news of guns engaged in the battle near Pirot.

French headquarters confirm the Serbian evacuation of Kraljevica Pass and that the Bulgarian offensive against Veleni is directed against Pirot, between which points, at Tetovo, the Serbs thus far have repulsed the invaders, inflicting heavy losses.

ARMY SAFE.

French staff officers do not seem to regard the position of the Serbian army as critical. They declare that the retreat which is now being conducted gives the defending army greater liberty of action without impeding it. In principle, they maintain that the gain of time is of more importance than the loss of ground, and that it is unimportant unless the ground involved happens to contain indispensable material resources. They maintain that the all-important thing is for the Serbs to continue their fight undismayed, while the allies are increasing their forces, extending their lines and limiting the field of Bulgarian action.

MONASTIR STILL SAFE.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—Reports from the Serbians now indicate that determination to still be offered to the Bulgarian forces which invaded the country.

The Hayes correspondent at Solun, telegraphing under yesterday's date, says the Serbians are holding our firmly in the Babuna passes and that the Bulgarians are suffering serious losses in the fighting there.

The Serbian city of Monastir, in the southwesterly corner, near the Greek border, is said by the correspondent to be safe for the present, as is Prilep, 25 miles northeast of Monastir.

The Bulgarians bombarded the French positions at Krivoj on Wednesday, but without tangible results.

ARTILLERY OVERWHELMED.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Daily Chronicle's Serbian correspondent, who has just been back from Belgrade and Krugovo, declared that the German progress in Serbia is a repetition of the old story of overwhelming artillery power.

"von Mackensen's army does not include more than 150,000 men, and it is provided with artillery arms for an army twice as large.

At Belgrade alone more than 50,

000 shells were poured."

The correspondent describes the fighting around Uskup as the bitterest of the war.

"The Serbs were surrounded by the battle raged eleven days before they quitted the city. For the greater part of that struggle the contending armies were within two hundred yards of each other and hand to hand encounters were continuous, with heavy losses on both sides."

"Even when the Serbs were forced to fall back beyond the city, the Bulgarians were unable to enter for days as the Serbian communists (Balkan) fought with the Bulgarians doggedly, street by street, from cellars to rooftops."

"Serbian officers declare that one additional regiment on their side would have turned the tide of battle in their favor. This indeed, has been true at several points where ferocious fighting has occurred in the past fortnight."

DR. HIGGINS AGAIN JUMPS HIS BAIL

Quits Philippine Post as Predicted

As predicted in THE TRIBUNE last September, in an article written by O. Cartell Jones, former member of the Philippine department of education, General Charles L. Higgs has found himself so unpopular among both the American and Filipino members of the service that he has been compelled to resign, according to dispatches received here today from Baltimore. General Higgs' resignation has been accepted by President Wilson.

Jones, in THE TRIBUNE article, gave a resume of the unsatisfactory condition of the Philippine Islands under the administration of President Taft, which, at the time of the publication of his article, was following a charge to the State Medical Board of practicing medicine without license. Special prosecutor Louis Wernham stated that the word had been carried to Dr. Higgins to say that he would be released if he would come to San Francisco to answer charges against him.

Higgs was captured in Oakland as the Federal tax collector, who is his wife, and a lifetime for him in California, was imposed after he had disappeared from the city for several weeks, still a fugitive. He had been forfeited on Federal Judge Higgin's charge that he was using the United States mails for unlawful purposes and after his apprehension he was tried and released. He was arrested for violating the Harrison Drug Act, and again the penalty was a fine which was paid.

'GET SPIRIT OF SOUTH: CAPWELL'

Oakland Merchant Explains Advantages of Get-Together Spirit.

"If it were possible, I would like to see every store close for a week and every merchant spend the time in Los Angeles. Then, after the merchants had caught the boot spirit of the south they could do wonderful work here."

"While the south is wonderful, we have more here in the bay region to show the people, better accommodations and more for their money. But we don't work together as they do."

"H. C. CAPWELL"

That the wonderful booster spirit of the south has made it the mecca of tourists and has even made for business conditions that have kept up financial activities despite its distance from any other center, is the statement of H. C. Capwell, Oakland merchant and Chamber of Commerce leader, who returned today from a week's business and pleasure trip to San Diego and Los Angeles.

That good roads are San Diego's greatest asset and that with its harbor facilities and building progress, it is becoming one of the principal cities of the United States, was the declaration of the Oakland business man.

SAN DIEGO'S ENTERPRISE

The people of San Diego realized that to keep tourists they must place themselves within easy touch of remote points, and the wonderful roads result," he said. "The tourist can travel anywhere by automobile. Their fair is pleasing. Of course, after seeing the exposition here it is like stepping from a big three-ring circus into a very high-class side-show—but it is very pleasing, and has been of enormous benefit to Southern California. They are planning to keep it open another year. The city appropriated $75,000. The citizens also put in some money, and Los Angeles added a $10,000 sum, realizing the fair's benefit to that city. Business there is not good right now, but the city is growing wonderfully and promises to be one of the principal cities of the United States in time.

In Los Angeles the first thing that impressed me was that the people are up and doing early. Shopping begins at 9 o'clock. This aids the merchant, and while bank clearings are not so large, the business done by the merchants is excellent. They can operate on more efficient lines. For instance, here we have to keep a full force doing little in the morning and working hard in the afternoon. There the forces work all the time.

HOLD ON TO TOURISTS.

"They hold on to their tourists there—welcome them, show them where to go and map out attractive programs for them, with something to see all the time. Everyone has the boost spirit and the Chamber of Commerce is the center of it all. When the chamber wants anything done the people realize that it is for their good, and see that it is done. It is a case of organization—that same organization that extended to a nation made Germany the power she is today. I would be willing to see every store in Oakland close for a week. If that could be done—of course, it is only a supposition, for it could not be—and see the merchants go south and get that spirit. They could then come back and work together. We have the better city and climate, the greatest attractions—but we don't show them."

May Join Army Freed of Fixed Obligations

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The suggestion was made in the House of Commons by Sir Alfred Mond, that legislation be enacted to suspend during war payment of rent, insurance premiums, interest on mortgages and similar fixed obligations of men who join the army. Sir Alfred, whose suggestion was received with favor, said that the suspension would be a great assistance to the necks of many men who except for them, would be glad to enlist. Premier Asquith said the government fully recognized the importance of the problem and promised to consider the suggestion carefully.

Greece Awaiting the Outcome in Serbia

By Associated Press.

SALONIKI Nov. 4, via Paris, Nov. 5.—According to information obtained from Greek sources believed to be reliable, King Constantine has assured the French minister at Athens that should Roumania join the entente allies or should the situation of Serbia be appreciably ameliorated by an Anglo-French offensive movement, Greece will not be compelled to change her present attitude. The reports that Russian troops are landing at Varna has made a deep impression here.

To Avoid Common Colds

Of all so-called slight ailments, none is more common, and few are more troublesome, than a common cold. Some persons, it is true, do not "catch" cold under conditions where another certainly would, and this we have been accustomed to explain due to lowered vitality and lessened resistance in some people, as compared to increased vitality and greater resisting power in others. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, if taken as directed, invariably gives the system power to throw off and resist coughs, colds, grippe, bronchitis and lung troubles. It keeps the body in good general health because it is a predigested liquid food which requires little labor on the digestive organs. Duffy's adds to the power of endurance and is of great assistance in destroying the cold breeding germs so prevalent at this season. That's why many people who "Get Duffy's and Keep Well" are seldom troubled with coughs and colds—it's a medicine for all mankind which should be added to your family medicine chest today. See that it is.

Woman Who Tried Suicide Cared for

Mrs. Jeanne Lea, who attempted suicide last night when reduced to penury and unable to find work, has been placed under the care of Miss Beatrice McLean, secretary of the Women's Protective Bureau. Mrs. Lea, a recent arrival from Tampa, Florida, attempted to leap into the bay, after she had spent her last dime to obtain a fern basket from San Francisco to Oakland. She was prevented from carrying out her intention by Frank Kennedy and F. H. Larson, two Western Pacific employees, who had noticed that she was acting in a peculiar manner, and who seized her just as she was about to jump into the water. She was taken to the City prison and given a meal and looking for the night.

Liner Is Reported on Fire at Sea

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 5.—A vessel believed to be the British steamer Rio Grande, en route to a wireless message received here, says that the liner, Captain Thompson reported to the marine and fisheries agent of the Canadian government at 11:45 p. m. Greenwich time, had passed in latitude 41° 58' north, longitude 59° west, a British steamer R. S. M. V. with five others in her hold and asking that it be reported to Halifax.

The signals correspond to those of the Rio Grande, which left New York October 28. The Frederick W.H. left Copenhagen October 15 for New York.

The audience sat for a moment, realizing that was real a fire, until the red light shown on the screen. Then everyone rushed for the main exit. All got out safely. The loss was small.

NO MURDER; VILLA WANTED SURGEONS REACHES BERKELEY

Reported Slaying of American a Plot: Dash to South Is Planned.

By Associated Press.
DOUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 5.—General Villa has ordered the release of Drs. Thigpen and Miller and the two American chauffeurs, whom he reported dead yesterday, according to a message received this afternoon.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 5.—Information from several reliable sources today definitely contradicted Francisco Villa's statement to General Frederick Funston and other American army officers at Naco, Ariz., yesterday that Dr. H. R. Thigpen, chief surgeon of the Cananea Consolidated Copper company, his assistant, Dr. James Miller, and two American chauffeurs, J. D. Pylant and A. L. Wilson, had been killed near Agua Prieta.

The four men are declared held prisoners at Villa Verde, twenty miles south of Naco, and the belief is generally expressed that Villa deliberately told the story of their death in order to induce the authorities to supply his urgent need of surgeons without being subject to inquiry or the necessity of giving them up.

The Cananea Consolidated company officials diplomatically assumed, however, that Villa merely had been mistaken and went to the Mexican outlaw chief today with a request that they be released. Villa was preparing to leave Naco this morning and did not immediately reply.

Villa's plan of campaign, as revealed here today by Colonel Cristobal Martinez, wounded staff officer on parole, was to draw Alvaro Obregon's army to the northwestern boundary, capture Agua Prieta and then march westward to the Sonora and Sinaloa to Jalisco. Next he planned to move eastward, cut Obregon off from his base and then dash for Mexico City.

ARMY STARTS SOUTH.
By Associated Press.

NACO, Ariz., Nov. 5.—With the laconic statement by General Francisco Villa that he was on his way to Hermosillo and was busy getting provisions for his men at Villa Verde, the center of interest in the border hostilities between Mexican factions today shifted to the south. On the roads stretching south and eastward from Naco, Villa said he had 13,000 troops, which he was planning to concentrate along the line of march to the southwest metropolis.

In the face of Villa's reiterated assurances that no property in the Cananea mining district would be molested, it was reported that the Cananea Consolidated Copper company paid $25,000 for immunity. Conflicting reports were received here concerning looting and destruction of property in this district.

GUAYMAS IS OBJECT.
By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Confidential reports to the war department from official sources in Mexico indicate that General Villa, in his movement to Naco, is carrying out part of a plan to strike from there through the interior to the Pacific coast to capture the port of Guaymas to get a base of supplies, then re-capturing his military strength, probably move on toward Mexico City. Villa's first plan was to get supplies at Agua Prieta if possible, but that it was planned long ago to move on to Naco, to Hermosillo and then on to the coast, where the American embargo on arms will not prevent the receipt of munitions.

Consular dispatches contained no reference to the border report that Dr. R. H. Thigpen, his assistant Dr. Miller, and J. B. Pylant, a chauffeur, all Americans, reported killed while giving medical aid to the Villa forces had been seen alive late yesterday.

The official dispatches regarded the men as killed and said they had been accidentally shot while between the firing lines.

RANCHERS SEND APPEAL.
By Associated Press.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 5.—Conditions were rapidly assuming normal proportions today. With the exodus of the last Villa forces from this section, work of clearing the battlefield of dead and wounded was proceeding. Most of the 3000 refugees who sought shelter in Douglas and the surrounding country have returned to their homes on the Mexican side.

American ranchers have sought federal assistance to prevent the return of their horses, which were stolen to Mexico. They claim that Calles' raiding parties had driven 1500 head across the border during the last few weeks.

Burial parties sent out by Calles have begun gathering the dead from around the outer earthworks.

Hundreds of bodies were found on the slopes to the west, southwest and south of the town.

CLERK IS SHOT.
L. M. Ball, a clerk at the Copper Queen smelter, was shot in the right foot by a Mexican sentry posted west of Agua Prieta. According to Ball, while running, bandaged souvenirs, he stepped over the line and was ordered by the sentry to go to Agua Prieta, as a prisoner. Ball leaped the international line and refused to obey, whereupon he alleged the sentry fired upon him.

VILLA SHORT OF COAL.
EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 5.—The Villa government in Chihuahua state is burning its last ton of coal, according to its attorneys here and unless some way is secured of releasing large supplies of fuel from what is considered by them the arbitrary control of the collector of the port, Zach L. Cobb, the government will be compelled to burn the ties of the railroads running into the interior and Casas Grandes districts.

Orders are already said to have been given for uprooting the ties of the main line from Jimil to Chihuahua. Clerks for trains, Tafnas on the line to Casas Grandes are already burning wood.

The consumption of ties will be followed by the burning of American railroad cars, it was said, irrespective of the fact that they are bonded rolling stock.

Thousands of head of cattle awaiting permission of the collector of the port to cross the Rio Grande have been so entangled in formalities, according to the Villa government's attorneys, that they cannot be exported.

TO RETURN RAILROADS.
EAGLE PASS, Tex., Nov. 5.—During a short talk with newspapermen,

WASHINGTON TEAM REACHES BERKELEY

Will Be Thankful to Win by a Small Score, Says Dobie.

to be held tomorrow on California field. The northern hosts, some 16,000 in number and representing the pick of brains and brawn of the championship college eleven of the northwest, reached their battlefield on the Shasta limited last evening and were immediately met at the station by the delegates of the local university who escorted their opponents to their quarters in the Hotel Carlton. A brass band assisted the northerners and escorted them for several pieces.

VISITORS AT BALL.

Coach Dobie gathered his charges together as soon as possible after his arrival and set up stands on which to place his bottled Washington water, which he carried especially for his men fearing the change from the two states might endanger the health of some of his warriors. The men were given a quiet dinner hour and afterward went to a meeting room for football, finally remaining for part of the evening and retiring early.

The team arose this morning at an early hour and after a medium breakfast rested and then donned their fighting togs for a short period of secret practice on California field. The team spent this afternoon in resting and planned an early retirement. Coach Dobie continued to wear the tattered look which has branded him as the "alien" coach of the north.

Dobie was as pessimistic in all views of the coming game and failed to show the slightest bit of confidence in his charges, although they have been picked as the certain victors in tomorrow's battle.

Coach Schaeffer of the California eleven was also prone to issue any extended statement and was contented with the fact that California was just learning the game and could not master the play in one season or a couple of seasons and that it would be at least three years before they would be equal in knowledge of the game to the Washington squad.

ROOTERS FROM NORTH.

The Washington men will be encouraged at the game tomorrow by some 400 students from the northern university, who have come to witness the contest and also to take in the exposition. A low rate on both water and rail was responsible for the number of these students, who will be scattered among the 400 to witness the game some 75 came first class, the others either coming steerage on the Congress or working their way as cooks, waiters and helpers.

The Washington team expects to return by water Sunday afternoon while the rooters do not intend to depart until the following day.

ROME AVERSE TO PEACE PROPAGANDA

Press Warns Public "Not to Be Deceived by False Hopes."

By Associated Press.
ROME, Nov. 5.—The reports concerning peace negotiations are arousing little interest here, although little credence is attached to the rumor that Prince von Buelow, the former German ambassador to Italy, is charged with such a mission.

Italian opinion sees in the numerous references to possible peace an attempt to create in neutral countries an atmosphere favorable to peace, which might constitute means for bringing pressure on the allied governments.

The Italian press warns public opinion not to be deceived by such false hopes. The Tribuna asserts that it is in a position to say that the entente allies have certain guarantees that the Rome cabinet will not be a party to such combinations.

All the Rome newspapers agree in pointing out how ridiculous would such attempts be at the moment the union of the allies has been drawn closer without taking into account the renewed victorious military activity.

May Serve in Army Instead of Prison

Superior Judge W. T. O'Donnell of Valparaiso will be called upon to decide whether J. M. Davidson, alias Parish, convicted of issuing fictitious checks with intent to defraud, is to go to San Quentin for four years or leave the United States to enter the British army. It is understood that the English consul at San Francisco is favorable to the plan of having Davidson leave this country and join the British colors and he will probably assist in saving the young man from the penitentiary. It is thought that Probation Officer George H. Kinloch will recommend that Davidson be permitted to leave the country.

Three Russ Boats Ordered Interned

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, by wireless to Sayville, N. Y., Nov. 5.—The Romanian government has ordered the disarmament and internment of two Russian torpedo boats and an armed steamship which are in Romanian waters at Turn-Serben, on the Danube," says the Overseas News Agency.

General Carranza discussed the reform program of the revolution in regard to the railroads of Mexico, which have been taken over by the Carranza government, he said that in due time these lines would be returned to the stockholders with sufficient indemnities.

One of the first steps in reconstruction came when General Carranza let it be known that hereafter all claims of foreigners should be taken up first with state authorities. In the event that settlements cannot be made locally, the claimant may appeal to the national government.

OBREGON TO TAKE CHARGE.

ALFONSO, Texas, Nov. 5.—General Alfonso Obregon, chief of operations of the Carranza forces, passed through here today enroute to Agua Prieta, Sonora, to take charge of the forces of General Calles and attack on Naco, occupied by General Villa.

ROOSEVELT STAND
OPPOSED BY TAFT*"Broadening of Power" Is Declared Dangerous Policy.

By Associated Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Broadening the use of executive power as exercised by former President Theodore Roosevelt was termed "unsafe doctrine" by former President William Howard Taft in an address here last night. He was speaking on the subject "The Presidency, Its Power, Duty, Responsibilities and Limitations," when he uttered the criticism of certain acts of his predecessor in the White House.

"Mr. Roosevelt," he said, "in his notes for his possible autobiography says in regard to the certain acts of his administration, 'I did not usurp power, but I did greatly broaden the use of the executive power.'

"My own judgment is that is an unsafe doctrine and that it might lead to irretrievable injustice to private rights. The mainspring of such a view is that the executive is to play the part of a Universal Providence and set all things right. The president is not an omnipotent and benevolent prophet."

"Mr. Roosevelt followed this principle in settling the Pennsylvania anthracite strike and no one has a higher admiration of the value of what he did than I have. But he failed in arbitration, however. Mr. Roosevelt proposed to use the army to seize private property. The benevolence of his purpose no one can deny. But from a standpoint of a government of law it could be only regarded as lawless."

In closing, however, Mr. Taft said it was entirely proper that the president should be elected with great enough power to carry out the government purposes of the people.

ST. LEO'S PARISH READY FOR BIG ANNUAL BAZAAR

Final preparations are being made by the parishioners of St. Leo's church, Piedmont, for the big annual bazaar to be held under the auspices of the parish sodalites in Palm Court Hall, Forty-first street and Piedmont avenue, for a week, commencing tomorrow. The proceeds of the affair will be put in the building fund and be used towards the liquidation of the church debt.

The bazaar promises to be one of the most successful ever held in the parish, and will be elaborately fitted out and will have many attractions feature. One of the biggest attractions will be the auto booth, where a big 5-passenger automobile will be raffled off on the last night of the fete. Another attraction will be the Country Store, the prizes in which have been contributed by Piedmont and Oakland merchants.

Among those who will have active charge in the booths will be Mrs. D. Waters, Mrs. D. McMullan, Mrs. D. Fleming, Mrs. M. Bowen, Mrs. A. Waters, Miss M. Waters, Mrs. R. Safley, Mrs. J. WITNESS MISSING IN FIGHT FOR MILLION

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Taking of depositions before Commissioner Francis E. Kroll in the Stuart will case in which a million and a half dollars are involved, came to a sudden end yesterday when it was announced that Attorney J. E. Alexander, an important witness, could not be found. Commissioner Kroll and the attorneys interested have gone to San Jose, where witnesses in that city will be examined.

The action is brought by Fenton E. Grigsby of Portland, Ore., administrator of the estate of the late Wana Miller Alexander, Stuart, who died several months ago.

Grigsby seeks an accounting from J. O. Hayes, San Jose publisher and pastor of the "True Life Church of San Jose," and of Mrs. Sarah E. Miller, mother of Mrs. Stuart. It is also asked that three deeds by which part of this property eventually came into Hayes' possession be set aside.

Alexander, the witness who could not be found, is a former husband of Mrs. Stuart.

GIVEN AUTO DAMAGES.
OROVILLE, Nov. 5.—Judge H. D. Gregory has decided in favor of the plaintiff in the suit brought by C. C. Brown of Durham against P. L. Burrough, a state highway contractor, north of Chico, for $408.70 damages. Brown alleged that before the negligence of the plain man, his auto was badly damaged when it ran into a ditch that crossed the highway. The accident occurred at night, and there were no warning lights.

CURS EXPENSES,
ORDER TO BOARD*Neyian Issues Warning As to Heavy Charges of Officials.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—J. F. Neyian, president of the Board of Control, issued a second statement yesterday dealing with the recent actions of the Board of Equalization, in which he warned the members that he would tolerate not even the appearance of undue expense charges against the State.

"There will be no return to the condition of three years ago," warned Neyian, who writes the charges made at that time that Collins and McElvaine, members of the board, charged the rent of apartments used to house their entire families to the State.

The letter to the Board of Equalization is part follows:

"It may be taken for granted, of course, that the Board of Control now and in the future, as it has always done in the past, will approve every legitimate expense account submitted by a member of the Board of Equalization. It may also be taken for granted that in the future, as in the past, the Board of Control will continue to disallow every illegitimate or fraudulent expense account submitted by the Board of Equalization."

"If certain members of your board hope to see a return of the conditions which were terminated by the Board of Control three years ago, there will be a distinct disappointment.

OLD CLAIMS CAUSE.

"The only trouble that ever has arisen between the Board of Equalization and the Board of Control over traveling expenses is that which arose at the time fraudulent claims were submitted to this Board by Jeff McElvaine and Dick Collins."

"As you know, for years the Board of Equalization, contrary to law, had charged to the State their travel expenses during the four or five months each year they were in Sacramento attending to the duties of their office. In spite of the fact that the law distinctly provided that Sacramento was the head-quarters of the Board, and in spite of the fact that they were allowed $4000 a year for the four or five months work.

"No doubt you will remember that the Board of Control questioned the legality of these charges, and that the whole matter came to a climax when the State was being charged by Mr. McElvaine and Mr. Collins for the total rent of their apartments in Sacramento in which their families were maintained.

"When this condition was found, the Board of Control summarily terminated the charging of all expenses in Sacramento, putting the members of the Board of Equalization on the same basis as all other State officials.

RULES OUT $7,500,000
RAILWAY SUIT MOTIONS

By Associated Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Supreme Court Justice Fendleton today virtually ruled out of court three important motions for judgment by Francis E. Johnson, attorney in law to recover $7,500,000 from the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company and several directors of the road.

Although this ruling leaves the plaintiffs without a cause before the Justice Fendleton granted them twenty days in which to amend their complaint.

SUSPENDS MORE SEA ACT CLAUSES

Vessels Not Complying With La Follette Bill Allowed to Sail.

LLY ROCHE, prize fight promoter and actress, claimed at New York today, faces arrest as result of a sensational suit in circles, today, faces arrest.

Mrs. Nellie Roche accuses acting Lord, actress of another husband's affections. Miss answers that she herself has Roche's wife since she was 17 years of age.

she will put Roche in jail if he married her again, having divorced the other wife, is Lord's threat. She has retained attorneys to fight the case against her by the other and has engaged detectives to evidence for possible crime.

Roche, at the present time, is the guest of her at their Long Island estate, only 17 when he married declared. "If he has married me again, I am going to do my best to jail him. However, I believe he was some kind of a divorcee, for he showed me a publication of one in a newspaper. I never heard before had any children. I hardly would have tricked me."

PAPERS SERVED.

served on Miss Lord, named defendant in a $15,000 suit and alleging alienation started the queer fight the two women. Mrs. Nellie, she alleges that Roche did provide for her or her children, and has been squandering his income on the actress who always earned my living he is now living with me indignantly declared Miss "So you can see that that isn't so I never saw any of his money."

Mrs. Roche denies knowledge of a divorce, which was sought by Roche, and her attorneys bear out her statements. Roche, who formerly was a fight referee in Oakland and San Francisco, went to New York eight years ago, leaving his first wife here. Mrs. Roche declares that she knows nothing about the alleged second marriage.

Strangely enough, the situation parallels that portrayed in a role Miss Lord is playing in a San Francisco theater at the present time. Joseph D. Redding is acting as her attorney in the suit.

'D. C.' to Go Into Discard, Order

Ancient Custom in Addresses Costs Government Money

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Old "D. C." has been given an official knockout punch. No longer will the name of the national capital of the United States be burdened with a suffix when it comes to telegrams from the various government officials in all the states and territories to the department at Washington.

The former regulation authorized the president to append all the names of features of the navigation laws as affecting foreign mail to the American registry.

An executive order issued in September, suspended such laws for two years and it was supposed that it would be carried out in the interests of the department.

Now, however, the new executive order will be issued to allow time for the law to take effect.

SUGGESTION TO WOMEN

Who Are "Just Ready to Drop"

"When you are "just ready to drop," when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—well, because you have not slept well, or got up an tired-out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help. You can get it just as Mrs. Maxwell did. She says:

"I kept house for my little family of three, and became completely rundown. I was weak, nervous and could not sleep; finally I was unable to do my house-work. A friend asked me to try Vinol. I did so and improved rapidly. It toned up my system, I regained my strength, am no longer nervous, sleep well, and do all my housework." Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, Montgomery, Ala.

There is no secret about Vinol. It owes its success to the medicinal extractives of fresh cod liver oil, tincture from beef peptone, the oldest and most famous body-building and strength-creating tonics.

So many letters like the above are continually coming to our attention, that we freely offer to return the money paid for Vinol in every case where it fails to give satisfaction. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Cal.—Advertisement.

Big Sum Is Raised for Suffrage Cause

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Suffrage leaders of Greater New York at a meeting in Cooper Union last night raised $100,000 in cash and pledges with which to continue the battle for the ballot. Leaders declared the meeting was the beginning of the 1916 campaign. More than $400 was contributed in cash and when almost $95,000 was pledged, Mrs. James Lee Laidlaw and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt pledged themselves to raise the remainder of the $100,000.

PRESIDIO WATCHMAN CAPTURES BURGLAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Following a battle with Oscar E. Honeslow, a watchman, early this morning, a burglar who invaded the Presidio reservation was captured and turned over to the police. He gave the name of Don G. Carrasco, a former United States army dragoon, and he is said by the military authorities to have been several times in trouble before and to have served a term at Alcatraz. Early this morning the watchman discovered Carroll running. As he made his way into the building with the use of his pass key the burglar sprang upon him. There was no chance for Honeslow to reach for his revolver and he dodged the blow and struck his opponent on the head with his electric torchlight.

The burglar was taken to a hospital to have a wound on his head dressed and was later booked.

chairman of the Auxiliary, presided as toast-mistress.

The guests of honor were Lord and Lady Aberdeen, Miss Torrington Sanford of Canada, secretary of the International Council; Mrs. Hugo Rosenberg of Pennsylvania, president of the National Council of Jewish Women; Mrs. Bushrod Washington Lynn and Dr. Kate Waller Barrett, both of Virginia; Mrs. Alice McKaye Kelly of the Philippine Islands; Dr. and Mrs. Ernesto Nelson and Dr. Elvira Lopez of Argentina; Commissioner-General and Madame Vassardakis of Greece, and Madame Gamianakas.

Others seated at the round table were Mrs. Percy King, president of the San Francisco district of Federated Women's Clubs; Mrs. Mary T. Gammie of San Francisco; Mrs. Jean Sinclair, president of the San Francisco Council of Women; Mrs. Kenneth Millikan, wife of the treasurer of the National Council of Women; H. C. Capwell and Owen E. Hote of the Commercial Club; John F. Conners and George Daniels, representing the press; Miss Maria Conner, vice-president of the Auxiliary; Mrs. Wm. Kett, Mrs. E. Gott, Mrs. Charles Chamberlain, Mrs. Anthony Cannetti Sr., and Mrs. Gaillard Stoney of the Woman's Board.

The opening speech was one of greeting from Miss Mollie Conner, who was followed by speakers from the Commercial Club and Chamber of Commerce also welcoming the visitors to Oakland. Following the tribute to the Council and its celebrated leader, Lady Aberdeen, and their responses, remarks were made on "Organization and aims of the Woman's Council" by Dr. Barrett.

Women of Persia and those of Greece were the subjects of talks by Mme. Ali Kahn and Commissioner Vassardakis respectively. Dr. Ernesto Nelson told of conditions in the Argentine, and Alice McKaye Kelly, known as "Good Morning Miss Kelly" of the Philippine Islands, described her experiences among the head-hunters there years ago, and the progress of education there.

TAKE MOTOR TRIP.

After the elaborate function had drawn to an enthusiastic close the delegates were taken on a motor trip to Berkeley where they were the guests of the Town and Gown Club at tea.

Lady Aberdeen is to be the guest of honor this evening preceding the big reception to be held in the Young Women's Social Club at 8 o'clock. Following at dinner she will speak to fifty young business women on the work of women in the world. Lord Aberdeen is also expected to attend.

At the reception beginning at 8 o'clock the Marchioness will probably speak again, though briefly. A musical program will be given by the Y. W. C. A. Club, from 8 until 10 o'clock, by the Oakland Musical Orchestra.

Other numbers will be contributed by the Mills College Glee Club, H. E. Francis Harmonie; Miss Elizabeth Wilcox, soprano; Mrs. Robert Battison, violinist; Mrs. H. E. Francis and Mrs. J. G. White arranged the entertainments features.

THE RECEIVING LINE.

In the receiving line will be Lady Aberdeen, Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, Mrs. Gaillard Stoney, Miss Mabel Cratty, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A.; Miss Grace Fisher, president of the Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. J. P. Richardson, Mrs. G. A. Peeler. A long list of prominent women will assist as hostesses, including the following:

After two more days of sightseeing in Washington the twenty-eight boy agriculturists touring the country as California's agricultural prize winners, will leave for Pittsburgh, and start on their return journey to Berkeley, according to word received at the University of California yesterday. The youthful champions did not meet President Wilson yesterday, as planned, but were entertained by Secretary Houston of the Department of Agriculture, and inspected the departmental grounds under the guidance of O. H. Baker. Today and tomorrow will be spent in seeing the capital and tomorrow night they will start for Pittsburgh. They will stop at various cities on the return trip.

OAKLAND AID FOR G.O.P. CONVENTION

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

Republican Will Set Before
East Advantages of Bay Region.

Planning to set before the Republicans of the east every possible advantage of San Francisco and the bay region is a convention G.O.P. Oakland. Republicans from everywhere will join with the organizations across the bay for the big campaign to bring the Republican national convention to San Francisco in 1916. Joint committees are being appointed to look after every detail of the convention campaign and every amusement, auto drive, facility and attraction will be placed before the Republican leaders.

The propaganda is being made among the members of the Republican national committee and also among many prominent party leaders throughout the United States. It supplements the work which the league has been doing in the periodical press and is a part of the general campaign that has been underway for the last two months in San Francisco's behalf. Every possible source of publicity has been reached by the league in its nationwide effort to bring the convention to San Francisco.

Felton Taylor, secretary of the league, has been invited to attend the meeting of the Republican state central committee executive committee, at which the campaign for the national convention will be discussed. It is the purpose of the executive committee to exert all of the influence of the party in this state toward winning the convention for San Francisco. Prominent Republicans have been requested to attend the meeting.

BATTERY B AT STATE SHOOT.
After several weeks of practice and competing, ten men have been selected to represent Battery B Field Artillery, of Oakland, in the state competitive shoot which is now being held at the government range at Martinez. Every man who goes must qualify as a second classman and must have one year's service to his credit in order to be eligible to enter the competition. The ten men who have been selected will leave Friday morning in charge of Lieutenant E. E. Vicary and will remain at the range until Saturday evening. As they are to compete with military organizations from every part of the state, it is to be hoped that the Oakland boys will make a good showing.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"When my baby was one month old I saw a yellow scale on his eyebrows and soon after found that his scalp was thickly coated with it also. The eyebrows became quite inflamed and caused irritation and the scales spread to the roots of his hair. His scalp itched so he irritated it and his hair became thin and dry." "After he was eleven months old I got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. On combing his hair I noticed his scalp was almost clean and with a few applications he was healed." ## Armenians Observe Day of Mourning

FRESNO, CAL., Nov. 5—Armenian residents of Fresno and vicinity made this a day of mourning because of the desolation of their people in Asiatic Turkey and made a start toward a fund to be subscribed $15,000 at a mass meeting. All Armenian places of business were closed and over 1,000 people gathered in the municipal auditorium to hear addresses on the Turkish atrocities and their hospital.

means of relief. Further proposals include a tag day for next Saturday.

"Affinity" Earle Once More Claims Bride

CEMETRY FALLS ON STEVEDORE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5—James McGahey, a stevedore, was probably fatally hurt at 10 o'clock this morning when he was struck by a slab of cement while working in the hold of the Panay, Greek shipping company steamer Homer, at Pier 15. His back was broken and after emergency treatment at the Harbor hospital was removed to St. Mary's hospital.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5—Ferdinand Earle, known as "Affinity" Earle is again a bridegroom. On October 1, he became known yesterday as the husband of Mrs. Florence Herman, See No. 4. Earle's first marriage to Emily Schabacher, place twelve years ago in Paris. He eloped with Jules Kupper in 1906. She obtained a divorce in 1910. In 1911 Earle married Miss Dora Sideworth. She got a divorce several months ago.

HORSES ARE BURNED.
MERCEDES, Nov. 5.—Twenty-two ranch work-horses were cremated in a fire of unknown origin at midnight which destroyed the $12,000 barn on the ranch of Oleese, Buchanan, Sheeny & Simondson, Mercedes, near Minburn, Madera county. The animals were the property of M. Laughlin, the tenant, and were not insured. The building was covered by insurance.

ARCHITECT FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

Sculptress Transported to Another State, Is Declarer.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Charges that Frank Lloyd Wright, a wealthy architect, had violated the Mann white slave act in transporting a sculptress from his city to his cottage at Spring Green, Wis., are being investigated by federal officials, according to a statement by Hinton G. Chapman, chief of the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice. The department is also examining letters written to Wright by Nellie Green, who formerly was employed as a maid at the Wisconsin home, and who, it is said, alleged to the officials that the architect had violated the law.

Wright denied the charge and said Miss Green was former servant who had complained to the government, hoping to rebatiate for being discharged.

Mrs. Mamah Borthwick Cheney wife of a former neighbor of Wright at Oak Park, Ill., her two children and four employees were slain by a crazed negro cook who set fire to the house at Spring Green more than a year ago. The house was rebuilt and Wright's mother resides there.

Alaska Winter on; Nome Port Closed.

By Associated Press.
NOV. 5.—The steamer Victoria sailed for Seattle late last night, the last vessel to leave Nome this season. Until next June, when navigation in Bering Sea is opened, Nome will be cut off from the world except by train or 200 miles of snow trail to the open ports in Southeastern Alaska. About 2500 people will remain in Nome.

The winter already has begun here. Severe storms are sweeping over Seward peninsula, accompanied by intense cold and much snow. The Victoria's sailing is unusually late, the underwriters reserving all steamer to be out of Bering Sea before November 15. The regular cutter Bear left Nome for Seattle Wednesday and will keep in touch with the Victoria to render assistance should the big liner become endangered by the

Milton Levi's Career Has New Romance

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Is Milton Levi, whose secret-marriage wife, Pearl Eubank-Levi, yesterday secured a final decree of divorce, now engaged to Miss Anna Liebenthal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Liebenthal of 1622 Broadway?

The young man's mother, Mrs. Herman Levi, says he is. She announced the engagement yesterday to friends.

Miss Liebenthal says he is not.

This latest development in young Levi's romantic affairs followed close upon the filing of the document by which his former wife, it is said, will receive $25,000 in a lump sum for her share of the community property.

Levi and Miss Pearl Eubank escaped to Independence, Yolo county, a year ago last March.

The brief romance became known two weeks later, when the couple separated and the bride began suit for divorce on the ground of cruelty.

She alleged that her husband, who is senior member of the private banking firm of H. Levi & Co., had showered her with abuse the day following their wedding.

The case was further complicated when the heroine of the runaway marriage filed two other suits, one for separate maintenance and another for $15,000 damages for an assault against the young man's mother and uncle. These suits are said to have been adjusted out of court and in connection with the decree which the bride of a few days was granted.

L. M. L. HOLDS MEETING.
George V. Knowland, district deputy, paid an official visit to Oakland Council, No. 6. Young Men's Institute, last evening. Plans for work of the order during the forthcoming year were discussed. Oakland Council, No. 6, is making arrangements for the annual affair, ladies' night, to be given at Knights of Columbus auditorium November 12. J. A. Peterson, S. J. Cosgrave and J. Flannery are among the principal speakers.

ABUSES OF THE RECALL.

The Alameda county grand jury, in its report submitted yesterday to the Superior Court, made two recommendations concerning the circulation of petitions under the recall law. First, that some measure be taken whereby persons circulating and signing recall petitions can be held to some standard of accountability; and second, that persons desiring to sign recall petitions should be required to go to some designated place for the privilege. It is not necessary to inquire as to whether these changes in the present recall law are necessary and would be effective. There may be other and better means to obtain the desired results.

The important consideration is that numerous gross abuses have been practiced in the various operations of the recall law and that some corrective measure is necessary. The grand jury, obviously intent upon keeping the recital of violations of the laws strictly confined to proven cases, felt constrained to enumerate a few of these abuses. It found that persons interested in the recall of officials employed men and women to secure signers to the petitions at the rate of five cents a name. This resulted in a number of irresponsible persons circulating a petition solely for the pecuniary reward.

Persons were solicited to sign petitions by some deputies for no other reason than to enable the deputy to secure his compensation. And the grand jury found that to enable the deputy to collect five cents was a sufficient motive for hundreds of persons attaching their names to the petitions. In some instances the petitions were signed without the presence of the registration deputy and in other cases wives signed for husbands and vice versa.

It was not necessary for the grand jury to point out that the persons who participated in these abuses of a valuable legislative privilege had a loose conception of their duties as citizens and voters. The recall is an important instrumentality in the government of this State. It places in the hands of the people absolute authority over any official's tenure of office. In the interest of justice and social peace it should not be called into action except where public safety demands it and popular sentiment sincerely endorses it. Serious and thoughtful protest against unfaithfulness of a public officer is the only sound excuse for invoking the recall.

The number of such thoughtful voters required by the statute is small enough. It might not be a bad idea to require voters to exhibit enough spirit to go to a designated station to sign a recall petition.

It is evident that the existing laws do not provide a sufficient safeguard against unscrupulous and selfish acts on the part of circulators, and thoughtless, irresponsible conduct on the part of signers of petitions. The object to be sought is to make every signature on a recall petition represent the protest of voter against official acts and a specific desire for a change.

"THE SHOE PINCHES."

A shoe is one of the oldest footmarks of civilization and has served many useful purposes. Until yesterday any inquiry as to whether an entirely new service of the shoe was possible would have elicited an emphatic no. Today we answer the same question with an emphatic yes. There is high prospect that the Democratic party will split on the flap of a shoe.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Congressman Champ Clark of Missouri, recently acclaimed by his fellow Missourians the greatest citizen of his State, described to The TRIBUNE yesterday how he had come to the parting of the ways with Josephine Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, and "North Carolina Boy." Mr. Clark's story briefly is this: Secretary Daniels advertised for bids for furnishing shoes to the enlisted men of the navy. There may have been several bidders, but only two are concerned with this story. One was a St. Louis Mo. shoe firm, the other a Boston concern. The Boston firm's bid was fifteen cents more a pair than its Missouri competitor, but it was awarded by Mr. Daniels the fat contract. Home industry is as much prized in Missouri as it is in Massachusetts. Mr. Clark and his fellow Missourians confess to ignorance of the uses of the Boston flap, but are convinced that it is not worth fifteen cents. The Speaker of the House has written the Secretary of the Navy to the effect that his action is contrary to law and regulations and must be corrected. In Mr. Clark's own words he will return to Washington in a few days and "take up the matter in such a way that it will never occur again."

The whole thing looks simple and might be merely a misunderstanding, but it isn't. Mr. Clark did not wear his accustomed smile while discussing the incident. He threatens a Congressional investigation of the Secretary of the Navy's office if an explanation of the peculiarity of the Boston shoe is not forthcoming.

Relying upon our knowledge of men and past events we venture that if Mr. Clark had not been talking for publication he would have said, "I'll make old Josephine explain when I get back to Washington." That was the way he looked. That being the state of Mr. Clark's mind it may be taken as a moral certainty that the leaders of the Democratic party will line up in rival camps over the shoe question. Observing persons have expected the break between the two men for some time. Mr. Daniels has committed many indiscretions since his sojourn in Washington. His exuberant adventures in naval administration have brought him criticism from all quarters, particularly from naval men.

Since Mr. Bryan's elimination from the cabinet he has been without a really congenial friend in Washington. Mr. Daniels is Mr. Bryan's protege and Mr. Bryan is the only reason any one has ever been able to give for Mr. Daniels' presence in the Wilson cabinet. Mr. Bryan talked Speaker Clark out of the nomination for the Presidency at the Baltimore convention in 1912. Otherwise Mr. Clark might be President today. Such a wrong cannot easily be forgiven and can never be forgotten.

The exclusive Boston flap for our sailors' shoes, a feature which the Missouri article did not boast, is more than can be borne silently and placidly. In other words the shoe pinches. The Speaker of the House, until the coming of Mr. Wilson the dominating figure in the Democratic party, refuses to wear it. He promises to put the shoe on the other foot—meaning "old Josephine" foot. If the case should get into Congress it is impossible to foretell what the Boston shoemaker may have created under the innocent title of "flap."

JAPAN'S FIRST MODERN CORONATION.

The coronation of Emperor Yoshihito of Japan, November 10th, will be an important event in modern Japan. It reminds us that within the reign of one ruler Japan has progressed from a "fowery" Oriental kingdom, closed to western peoples, to a modern member of the family of great nations of the world. The last coronation was that of Emperor Meiji, in 1868. That was thirteen years after the visit of Commodore Perry to Japan and the doors had just been opened to the West. Only a few foreigners then dwelt in the treaty ports and they were subject to the laws of their own nations and were protected by their own armed guards under the treaty privilege of extraterritoriality. Emperor Meiji died two years ago, so it may truthfully be said that the advancement of Japan, the realization of her great ambition to be ranked with the great modern countries of the west, took place within the lifetime of one man.

In carrying out the ceremonial at the coronation of Emperor Yoshihito, Japan will, in a way, turn back the pages of her history and her civilization. Since the last coronation, nearly fifty years ago, the customs, thought and life of the Japanese have undergone an epochal change. In preparation for the ceremonies the officials have had to delve into ancient arches and instruct the participants in the traditional ritual, customs, procedure, etc. To modern Japan, and especially those of its citizens boasting a Western education, the ceremonies will be as novel and full of archaic interest as they will to the Western tourist. There is one phase, however, of the celebration at Kyoto which will need no retouching or reviving hand. The most important, solemn and carefully observed feature of the coronation will be the paying of homage to the Emperor's ancestors. In English terms this is called "ancestral worship," though the practice does not quite justify this title as the English words are commonly applied. Yet it is one feature of ancient and medieval Japan that has undergone no significant change during the modernization of the country. Every household has a shelf where the ancestral gods repose and where at prescribed times the "paying of respect" is performed by all the members of the family. From this custom, which finds its highest expression in the act of the imperial family in paying homage to its heavenly ancestors, is the government of Japan strongly nurtured.

So next week ancient and modern Japan will meet upon common ground. In no other modern nation could such an interesting performance be witnessed. The appealing force of "ancestral worship" will, in all probability, endure through many future generations of the Japanese people. Yet it will interfere in no way with their economic and intellectual progress, and it serves as a happy bond between the stirring history of the past and the glorious achievements of the present.

PULL TOGETHER.

The president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, describes graphically the situation confronting Oakland when he says: "If Oakland is to come into its own as a city of half a million, or even retain its present equilibrium, existing forces must be hitched together side by side and pull together, rather than end to end and pull in opposite directions." Mr. Metcalf confessed that the inspiration for this expression was the famous Franklin epigram, "We must hang together or we will surely hang apart."

The president of the Chamber of Commerce is addressing himself to the campaign to increase the membership of that body and thus its efficiency in promoting the prosperity of Oakland. This city needs the broadening facilities of the Chamber and enlarged membership and more working capital will vastly increase its power for good in the community. Such an organization is indispensable to the progress of every community and Oakland will not have done well enough until it has made its commercial body an enthusiastic, irresistible power for business progress and prosperity.

To obtain higher measure of efficiency the directors of the Chamber have inaugurated a movement to increase the membership to 2500.

Oakland is indeed fortunate in having at the head of its commercial organization a man as eminently qualified as President Metcalf to head a commercial body. His public career as a member of Congress and cabinet officer and his experiences in private life, his faith in Oakland and his thorough knowledge of its needs and opportunities equip him perfectly to lead the people of this city in greater community achievement. The business men should get solidly behind his program to build up a great central organization with bureaus covering every industry.

THE PRESIDENT AND NATIONAL DEFENSE.

While President Wilson was not as definite as he might have been in the "exposition" of his plans for national defense in New York yesterday, the people are enabled to make a somewhat closer guess of his ideas regarding army and navy increases. He is in favor of a civilian army of 400,000, to be created at the rate of 133,000 men a year for three years, and approves the plan for naval increases announced several days ago in Washington. Otherwise he is for "adequate preparedness" to enable us to proceed undisturbed toward international development.

Mr. Wilson's changed attitude towards defense measures is commendable and cause for popular gratification. It is to be hoped that he will encounter no insuperable difficulties in changing the minds of those Democratic members of Congress who have with concerted regularity voted against increases for the army and navy upon every occasion offered. The real test of the value of Mr. Wilson's support and his personal viewpoint concerning "adequate preparedness" will be discovered when the appropriation bills are introduced in Congress. Any opposition to them will be found among the members of his own party.

Reports from London disclose the fact that Premier Massey and Sir Joseph Ward, minister of finance in the New Zealand cabinet, have been summoned to London to attend the Imperial Council in December. This will mark an important event in the political history of the British Empire. It will be the first time an officer of a colonial government has participated actively in the Imperial Council. Whether it means that official of all England's over-seas dependencies will be invited to join the home councils is not certain, but such a suggestion was made over six months ago by Mr. Andrew Bonar Law, progressive member of Parliament. These events may possibly be the forerunner of close co-operation between England and her colonies, even to the granting of the right to colonials to participate in the home government. The introduction of the new blood of the agriculturalists of Canada and the Antipodes would no doubt have an interesting effect.

WOULD EXTEND FAIR.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

I offer the suggestion to extend the closing of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. There is a growing feeling of regret as the time of closing is the greatest of all fairs approaches. Could not the time be extended to February 20, 1916, thus completing a year's duration? The Exposition was opened in the rainy season—and it was a very rainy spring, but that did not mar its success.

If the time could be extended, it would only offend many winter visitors from the East and elsewhere the pleasure of attending, but bring out others to the fair in the spring, who would be an advantage to us. These would contribute largely to the profits of the Exposition.

There is also another question. It would settle the question that will otherwise be serious one to answer, what to do for the hundreds of unemployed young persons suddenly turned out by the closing of the Exposition, in the very beginning of winter. Not only these, but hundreds of men now employed. In the spring all these would have far better opportunities of obtaining positions. By extending the closing time, San Francisco and the bay cities will save having to solve a hard problem.

"It is true," our informant says, "that the beauty is to conserve it to us some time longer. We could have a wonderful and unique Christmas there, a New Year worthy of the Phoenix City. And close on Washington's birthday, making it a gorgeous spectacle of patriotism."

CENSORSHIP OF MOVIES.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

The moving picture, which is a great force in our midst, is conducive to both good and evil, it does not only serve as a source of amusement, but as a channel for instruction and an incentive to action; therefore, it must be included among those forces against which we have to be particularly guarded.

Although these pictures are all censored before presented before the public, still there are many features left which are so deleterious as to easily shatter the nerves of the moralist and demoralize the mind of a child.

Let us raise our voices against and put our stamp of disapprobation upon the scenes of burglary, murder and indiscriminate use of destructive weapons by the moving picture actors. These scenes are all conducive to the weakening of our wills, corrupted minds and degraded communities.

Most newspaper readers are aware of cases wherein people have committed crimes through the influence of moving picture scenes. Destructive implements are placed in the hands of men, women and youths through channels scattered from one end of our streets to the other, and using the theaters as medium, their minds are educated to the internal use of these weapons.

BARRISTER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

President and His Fiancee in N.Y.
Wilson Meets His Party Leaders

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—President Wilson planned to spend most of today with Mrs. Norman Galt, his fiancee, and relatives who are in New York.

Despite the late hour at which the president left the Manhattan club banquets last night, he arose early today at the home of Colonel E. M. House, where he spent the night, and called upon Mrs. Galt at her hotel about 9 o'clock. Later they were to attend a luncheon given in their honor by Cleveland M. Dodge.

President Wilson had planned to leave for Washington at 10 o'clock, but deferred his departure until late this afternoon in order to attend Mr. Dodge's luncheon. Among the guests were Miss Helen Woodrow Bonas, the president's cousin, who accompanied Mrs. Galt on her shopping tour here; Miss Gertrude Gordon of Washington, and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the president's naval aide and pilot. Galt.

The president has taken advantage of his visit to this country with various Democratic leaders. William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee, who has been reported to have differences with the president, had a long talk with him late last night.

The bullet entered his left breast, missing the heart, but passing through his lungs. Because of his advanced age, 60 years, it was at first feared that death would follow, but Dr. Woods Allen, the attending physician, believed this morning that his patient's life could be saved. He rallied during the night from the shock of the wound.

SIGNS OF DERANGEMENT.

According to members of his family, Judge Brittan had shown signs for some time of some mental derangement, but his condition did not suggest a house. He suffered from the hallucination that he was being pursued by enemies. Yesterday morning he went to San Francisco, returning to his home in the afternoon. While crossing the bay on a Key Route ferry he attempted to end his life by leaping from the upper deck of the boat. A deckhand, who had been watching him, in spite of his peculiar actions, caught hold of him as he climbed upon a seat alongside the edge of the boat and pulled him back. He was placed by attachmen of the company upon the Claremont train and sent to his home.

PEELS INTO ROOM.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Baker, seated in the living room of the residence, Judge Brittan went upstairs and secured a small rifle which he owned. He hid himself in a trunk room, closed the door, placed the muzzle of the weapon to his breast and fired. Both Mr. and Mrs. Baker did not hear the shot, but were aroused a moment later when Judge Brittan reeled into the room, bleeding from his wound and fell fainting to the floor.

He was taken in the police ambulance to Alta Bates sanitarium, and attended there by Dr. Allen. Examination showed that the bullet had perforated the stethy's left lung. Though the wound is serious, Judge Brittan is suffering no shock, it is read. It is believed he will recover.

Judge Brittan was for many years, until his recent retirement, a prominent member of the San Francisco bar. He was formerly on the supererior court bench in that city and county.

HOLD FOUR ON GIRL BATTLES ROBBERY WITH THUG CHARGE FOR LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—With charges of robbery and grand larceny hanging over their heads and with the confession of one of their number implicating them in the theft of an automobile and the holding up of a grocery, four young men ranging in ages from 20 to 24 years old, are held in definite today at the city prison. One of them is Gordon Douglass, son of Patrolman George Douglass, stationkeeper at the Bush street station, and the other is Ralph W. French son of Patrick J. McHugh and said to be a cousin of Patrolman William McHugh, who served a term in the county jail in connection with the police bunc scandal of two years ago. The other two are Mervin Williams and Gerald Walsh.

The alleged confession was made by McHugh, who was taken into custody at home, 1711 Teahen avenue, at 5 o'clock this morning. The police are still searching for the man, who is said to have been in the party.

BIG AUTO STOLEN.

Early last evening the automobile of J. M. Mainwaring, a stable boy in front of his residence, 26 Starkey street. It is a big seven-passenger car and it was the theft of this machine which was responsible for the undoing of the gang. They determined to use it in a holdup and at a late hour last night drew up in front of the grocery of Thomas Maloney, 5201 Geary street. Two of the bandits entered the store wearing masks and carrying revolvers. Maloney was compelled to hand over $55 which he had in his pocket and as the pain struck he seized his own revolver and ran after them. He was in time to see the machine drive off and he fired a half dozen shots at the speeding car. The holdup was witnessed by Mrs. Mark Manning of 517 Eighteenth Avenue, who saw it turn into Golden Gate Park and who notified the police. Patrolmen Morris Hayes, Patrick Cronin and W. J. Johnson of the South station had heard the description of the stolen automobile read to them by Lieutenant Anderson as they left on the night patrol and when they saw four men streaking from a machine at Seventh and Folsom streets, they closed in on the fugitives, capturing three of them. All were taken to the city prison and placed in definite and the capture of McHugh followed shortly.

The four young men arrested for the theft of the automobile of J. J. Mahoney and the robbery of the grocery of Thomas Maloney were later accused of holding up the saloon of John Beck, Sixth and Harrison streets, at midnight. Four masked men entered and robbed the bill of $1. Beck identified Ralph McHugh and Gerald Walsh as the two who had broken into his place of business. McHugh was the man who had entered his grocery.

Douglass, who is the son of Patrolman George Douglass, broke down and confessed when his father confronted him, admitting all three crimes. The boys were charged with burglary and grand larceny shortly before noon. All are under age, it developed. Douglass is 16, McHugh and Williams 17, and Walsh 18.

BOBBED OR PUR SET.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—While she was purchasing a ticket for the midnight Santa Fe train at the Ferry building, Mrs. M. Chambers, of 626 Willow avenue, placed a fur muff and necklace on the bench beside her. When she turned to pick them up they were gone and an immediate report was made to Patrolman M. Chambers who was compelled to leave on her train, but before doing so she offered a reward of $100 for the recovery of the property.

Lotta's Fountain Sparkles Welcome

Donor to Be Given California Ovation

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—They are brightening Lotta's fountain up today, for tomorrow the woman who gave it to San Francisco comes back home, and will be given a public reception, where Tetrazzini sang and some of the finest history of the city has been written.

And there will be written another chapter of real California history tomorrow evening when Lotta Crabbet comes to her fountain to shake hands with San Francisco.

There'll be speeches and songs and music; there'll be flowers and bands and committees, all be city officials and theatrical people who are taking an enthusiastic interest in the plan to honor one who was once the very leader of their profession here, and there'll be exposition officials and probably the exposition chorus to give the melody of their voices to the brief program.

The entire reception will not consume more than half an hour.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK OWL FAILS

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Passengers arriving today on train No. 28 of the Southern Pacific, known as the Owl, report that an attempt was made to wreck the train early this morning at a point about twenty miles north of Fresno. Two plates of sheet iron about a quarter of an inch thick and four feet wide were placed across the rails.

Miss Lawrence was sound asleep when at 4:30 o'clock she heard a man moving about in her room. She jumped up and snatched for new. Drawing a long broad knife the intruder approached her and seizing her by the throat held the blade against her. She fought with him and the engine knocked one of these sheets off the rails and ran over the other without leaving the track. Detectives were at once sent out from Fresno to investigate. Railroadmen believe that the attempt at wrecking the train was part of the campaign of the Industrial Workers of the World agitators, which have resulted in the last few weeks in the burning of many farm buildings and the destruction of hop fields.

'NO THOUGHT IN VOTE': MISS WILSON

President's Daughter Appeals for as Much Care as in Buying Suit.

By Associated Press.
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, told the Wisconsin State Teachers' convention here today that the majority of voters cast their ballots with "as little forethought as they give to buying a suit," and proposed as a remedy the use of school buildings as meeting places for citizens and as voting booths and the employment of school principals as election clerks. She said the people should be organized according to the voting precincts with the school buildings as their centers.

"Let us make the vote mean something," said Miss Wilson. "I am told that when a man gets a suit he gets what the tailor tells him to wear. That is what most voters do in the primaries. They vote for the men with 'the suit' the parties have. We ought to have more thought far except talk about it."

Mrs. Wilson said it "surely is America's opportunity before all other nations to prove that the idea of democracy is more than a process." She added: "I added that self-government is nothing more or less than a process of education."

DRUMMERS, AS HAYSEEDS, TO GRACE "HICK HALL"

"Drummers" will lay aside their grips tonight and, attired in the costumes of "Hayseeds," make merry at their big "Hick Hall," latest in dances, at Maple hall. The women will wear calico gowns, olden and country delicacies will be served, refreshments and the band dance the dancings of the home.

The "Hick Hop" is the largest social affair given this season by the United Commercial Travelers, and Maple hall has been especially decorated for the occasion. Carl Remmell is chairman of the committee in charge of the ball.

MERCHANT ASSOCIATION TO MEET.
SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 5.—The merchants' Association will hold its next meeting Monday evening. There will be no banquet, and business will be the only item on the program. The meeting get-together will be held at the Hotel San Leandro, 1111 Washington street, where several speakers from Oakland and other cities will talk.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE.
SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 5.—William D. McCracken of New York City will lecture on "Christian Science" in the Masonic Hall Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. The lecture will be under the auspices of the First Christian Science Church of Oakland and will be open to the public.

Cupid Conquers Mother and Son

Three Relatives Figure in Double Wedding

Mother and son and niece-in-law were the principal actors in two weddings which occurred in San Francisco within twenty-four hours of each other. The second of the ceremonies occurred last evening, when Worth T. Cravens, 2423 Seventh avenue, East Oakland, took his bride, Miss Stella E. Hyde, 222 Eighteenth Avenue, San Francisco, who was a niece of his mother's second husband, Wallace E. Hyde.

The first of the duo of weddings took place Wednesday night when Cravens' mother, Mrs. Maude C. Hyde, became the bride of Gilbert L. Belcher. This ceremony was also performed in San Francisco. When Mrs. Belcher returned to her home in Seventh avenue yesterday, she told her son of her marriage. He said nothing, but smiled mysteriously.

Last evening Cravens and Miss Hyde hurried to San Francisco, secured a marriage license and sought a minister. They lost no time in being married, the ceremony taking place at the home of the latest bride's sister, Mrs. Gilbert Campbell.

Miss Hyde came from La Crosse, Wis., and met her step-cousin-in-law, who is now her husband, six months ago.

CLAIM 6000 NAMES TO REFERENDUM PETITION

"More than 6000 voters have already signed the referendum petitions calling on the Board of Supervisors to submit to the people the question of purchasing a new site for the county buildings and may well have the requisite number of signatures before the time set for the filing of the document," was the announcement made last night at the headquarters of the Taxpayers' League, 1411 Broadway.

Volunteer workers from various civic organizations are circulating the petitions and the referendum petition, inaugurating a new law which is designed to prevent in future the purchase of a new site for the county buildings unless it has been approved by the voters at an election.

ARREST DRIVER.

A. E. Ashmeade, 1225 Broadway, was arrested at 11th and Grove streets at 3 o'clock this morning. The automobile he was driving had collided with a machine driven by J. W. Coots. Ashmeade was charged with violating the state motor vehicle act by driving an automobile while intoxicated. Both vehicles were damaged, but neither Coots nor Ashmeade was hurt.

ATTORNEYS CLASH.

In the course of a wrangle between the attorneys, after the jurors had been excused for the day, over the alleged misuse of the grand jury by the prosecution, Edwin W. McKenzie, of counsel for the defense, jumped to his feet and exclaimed:

"I just want to 'get' Trelitmo why don't you insert his name in this indictment in place of John Doe or Richard Roe?" Turning to James W. Noel of Indianapolis, special prosecutor, he continued: "You tried to get Trelitmo before, but you didn't get him—did you, Mr. Noel?"

"I didn't," reported Attorney Noel. "I just used the case of the United States against Ryan, tried in Indianapolis, as you will find in the record."

Trelitmo was in court at the time and after the adjournment he was asked if he had any statement to make. He characterized the intimation of the prosecution that he might be connected with the case as "bluff and bluster."

"It is the last gasp of a dead and dying conspiracy," he declared, "a conspiracy, not of the labor unions, but of Detective William J. Burns, and his associates."

ROUBLE OVER WITNESS.

The controversy arose when the defense pressed its contention that the prosecution was trying to obtain information from Marie Litter Lipton, a friend of Schmidt; and a prospective witness, by causing her to be examined before the grand jury. The defense requested Judge Willis to order that a transcript of the testimony of Mrs. Lipton before the grand jury be made and furnished the defense on the ground that her testimony related to the present case.

Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney, insisted that the testimony before the grand jury related to a different case from the one on trial.

"Isn't it true," asked Attorney McKenzie, "that the testimony of this woman and of Donald Voss before the grand jury covered the same ground as that in this indictment charging that Schmidt and others with murder?"

"I have no doubt that you and some others would like to know what transpired before the grand jury, but you won't find out from me," replied District Attorney Woolwine.

SCHMIDT SEEKS TO DISQUALIFY NOEL

Nathan C. Coghlan Springs a Surprise in L. A. Dyna-mite Trial.

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—Nathan C. Coghlan, chief counsel for Matthew A. Schmidt on trial for murder in connection with the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building, October 1, 1912, asked the court today to disqualify James W. Noel, special prosecutor on the ground that Noel is not a citizen of California nor an elector of the county and has not been admitted to the practice of law in the state.

Noel was employed by the county because of familiarity with similar cases, and is a special prosecutor in the Indianapolis trials, in which thirty-eight men were convicted and two others pleaded guilty. Attorneys Coghlan presented to Presiding Judge Frank M. Williams citations on the matter. He cited the law to show that a county may employ temporary counsel for the defense, but not for the state as is in the present case. A. H. Vancor, deputy district attorney, replied that Noel was employed under a rule that permitted the employment of assistant counsel for an attorney regularly admitted to practice in another state.

He then referred to the prosecution to make Ollie A. Trelitmo, a co-defendant of Matthew A. Schmidt, was made yesterday at the trial of Schmidt, who is charged with murder in connection with the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building October 1, 1910. It was the first time that the name of Trelitmo, the San Francisco labor leader and secretary of the State Building Trades Council, had been mentioned before the court.

MAY ORDER PAYMENT OF CLAIMS CLAY REJECTED.

The three claims of the Leona Quarrell company for payment for rock which were screening supplies to the city, which were rejected by City Auditor J. H. Clay on account of informality in the method of ordering the rock, can be paid by a four-fifths vote of the city council, according to a formal opinion filed today by Deputy City Attorney W. H. O'Brien. The bills will be passed at a session of the council at which there are four commissioners present. Commissioners Jackson and Anderson having been absent from the meeting. The claims are for an aggregate of $389.60.

Resolutions were passed ordering the improvement of Sixty-fourth avenue, Harmon and Bromley avenue, and Twenty-seventh avenue between East Twenty-second and East Twenty-third streets.

"Claims were ordered paid as follows:

Appropriation for engineering investigation—M. H. Miller, $300.

Harbor appropriation—Federal Construction Company, $3345.73.

On the Clawson school construction fund—Wilfred N. Ball, $145.

RED CROSS CHAPTER TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING.

BERKELEY, Nov. 5.—The Berkeley chapter of the American Red Cross society will hold its annual meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in room 101 Califia hall.

The speaker for the evening will be Dr. Edward F. Richardson, of the American Red Cross society, who will give an interesting account of the work of the society.

The Berkeley chapter is the largest chapter on the Pacific coast and has done much to aid the cause of humanity.

It is now entering upon the second year of its activity, and the chairman of the chapter has issued a statement thanking the public for its generous support during the past year.

He adds:

"The only requisite for membership in this society is to select your name and pay the dues. You will receive from the national headquarters the Red Cross magazine which gives an account of what is being done by the generous contributions of the American people.

In this way every organization gives everyone a chance to help, and you are most cordially invited to attend the meeting on Friday evening, in room 101, Califia hall, and to bring interested friends with you."

LIBERTY BELL TO TRAVEL HOMeward*20 NEW OIL LAND SUITS TO BE FILED

Philadelphia Councilmanic Escort Committee Due to Arrive Tuesday.

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—The councilmanic committee which will escort the Liberty Bell home from the Panama-Pacific Exposition, left here today in a special train for San Francisco, where it is due to arrive next Tuesday afternoon. United States Senator Penrose is a member of the party, who will be one of the officers of the Philadelphia delegation. Wires and cables are made at the many stops on the return journey.

According to the present plan, next Wednesday will be Liberty Bell Farewell Day at the Exposition, as the relic is due to leave San Francisco the next day. The bell will arrive at the Panama California Exposition at San Diego Friday afternoon and will remain until midnight Sunday. It is due in Los Angeles Monday, November 15, for a seven-hour stop. On the journey East the special train will make many stops in Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New York, New Jersey and in Pennsylvania.

There were so many requests for a copy of the bill from New York that the committee at the last moment changed its itinerary and instead of having the bell come directly east from Pittsburgh, the route was changed so that it will go north from Western Pennsylvania to Buffalo, across New York to Albany and then down the Delaware via Philadelphia on Thanksgiving day. There will be a fitting welcome home celebration. The journey of the bell to and from the Pacific Coast will cost the city of Philadelphia $75,000.

Witnesses Are in Fresno in Defense of Alleged Violators of Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—A dozen oil men are in Fresno today to appear as witnesses in defense of the suits of the United States government against alleged violators of the law by those who have entered upon oil lands since September, 1903, when then President William Howard Taft withdrew 3,600,000 acres of these lands from patent. The cases are being heard before United States District Judge Benjamin Bledsoe, and have been in progress for several days.

In addition to the twelve suits now pending against men who have entered upon oil lands which Taft withdrew from public ownership, twenty more suits for similar purposes will be started by the United States government according to a statement by E. J. Justice, special assistant to the United States Attorney General today. These new suits, according to Justice, are to be directed against men who have entered upon the lands since they were withdrawn in September of 1903.

The preponderance of evidence adduced yesterday by the defense was to the effect that Taft had no title on the land that he had in doubt whether he had the legal rights to withdraw the land from patent. This testimony was intended to show that the companies involved in the present suits acted in good faith when they continued their drilling operations before and after the issuance of the presidential proclamation.

WITNESSES EXAMINED.
The witnesses examined yesterday were William N. York, Gratz W. Helm and W. E. Story, for the Standard Oil Company; W. H. Whitter, for the Union Oil Company; R. T. Harding for the General Petroleum Oil Company, and Thomas A. O'Donnell, for the Marquette-Star Oil Company.

O'Donnell testified that Taft had told him personally that he had been advised that there was a doubt as to whether he had the right under the federal constitution to withdraw the land which he later did.

Others of the witnesses testified that they had been informed by senators, congressmen and prominent attorneys at Washington and elsewhere that Taft would exercise his authority if he withdrew the lands in question.

It was announced that the oil cases in which Judge Bledsoe is disqualified from trying will be heard commencing November 10, by Judge Robert S. Bean of Portland, Ore., at Fresno. The cases are the Pacific National Oil Company, Midway Northern, Consolidated Midway, American Oilfields Company Ltd., David Kinsey et al., and two Indiana Oilfields Companies.

Senator Newlands of Nevada, Senator Phelan of California, and Congressman Church and Elston, following a meeting yesterday with oil men, declared that they believed remedial legislation should be adopted by the government to stop the present suits and announced that they would work for the adoption of such laws at the next session of Congress.

U.S. TO EXPERIENCE SHOCK; GOMPERS

Labor Leader Declares That Nation Will Feel Aftermath of War.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—"When the millions of men now fighting in Europe are suddenly compelled to cease the destruction of human beings and turn to peaceful and industrial pursuits, the United States will experience the shock." So the Rev. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who is here with twenty-seven other delegates to the thirty-fifth annual convention of the organization, which will open its sessions here next Monday. The president of the big labor organization will preside at the meetings.

WARS' AFTERMATH.
"Labor will experience this shock," he continued. "The subject is too serious a one to discuss off hand. I have some ideas as to how to handle the situation, but as the end of the war looks to me to be far off yet, I will not voice my sentiments at this time. This problem, which we will be called upon to meet at the end of the war will, I am sure, be properly and patriotically met by American labor."

Gompers is an enthusiastic supporter of Secretary of Labor Wilson's plan to establish government employment offices to work with business and municipalities in all parts of the country as a solution to the problem of unemployment. He will confer on the matter with Immigration Commissioner Anthony Camerini, who has been delegated by Wilson to direct the organization of the system.

FAVORS WILSON PLAN.

"I think Secretary Wilson will accomplish much for labor along the lines he is working," said Gompers. His movement will benefit employer and employee alike.

Oakland and San Francisco labor leaders expect the Gompers party upon its arrival in Oakland. Mrs. Gompers and her daughter, Miss Sadie Julia Gompers, are with the president of the labor organization. The other delegates in the party, who come from all parts of the country, are also accompanied by members of their families.

HACKETT MAKES PLEA FOR MUNICIPAL THEATER

Making a plea for clean drama and a municipal theater in Oakland, where good plays may be given the public without the uncertainties attendant on a private venture, Norman Hackett, actor, yesterday addressed the Oakland Rotary Club at the club luncheon at the Hotel Oakland. He declared that the municipal theater plan is coming through the competition given private theatrical ventures or the moving picture.

Committees were appointed for Key Route Day at the Exposition when the children of the East Bay region will be entertained as the railroad's guests.

SLASHED IN ARM AND ROBBED BY HIGHWAYMAN

The police are investigating the report made by Vernon Terkelson, 2223 East Fifteenth street, that he was attacked and robbed in an alleyway near his home last night. Terkelson was on his way home when he was stopped by two men, one of whom was armed with a large clasp knife. When Terkelson attempted to defend himself, the bandit slashed his arm with the knife, inflicting a deep flesh wound. The two men searched the victim and took a purse containing $50. Terkelson reported the matter to the police, and a vain search was made of the neighborhood.

MUSIC BOX IS 'PETTY PRIOR'

Prosecutors, Bored by Airs,
Are Deaf to Speeder's Plea.

It's a long road that hasn't a turn," mused defense lawyer attorney today when Jake Parosky, wealthy proprietor of a lower Washington street market, appeared at the Alameda court house and asked for release. "I am not here for speeding alone," he said.

Besides Parosky, an automobile photo-artist operates an automatic music box in the entertainment of his market three times each week.

For months past the routine strains from the box have grated upon the ears of judges, court attaches and members of the district attorney's staff in the courthouse. Even prosecutors in the county jail nearby have protested, declaring that the Constitution provides that she shall not have cruel or unusual punishment inflicted upon them.

A appeal after appeal was addressed to Pantosky during the spring and summer months. Efforts were even made to invoke the law in restraining the music box, but all in vain; it played merrily, if not harmoniously, alone.

So that is why, says Attorney General W. B. Smith and Myron Harron told Pantosky, "nothing's doing" when he appealed to them for sentence.

"See the judge," was their only consolation and it is well known among speeders that the judges' prescription is usually $25 for the first offense.

Murder of Cripple
Reviewed in Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Mary Pamas, 52, who charged with murder for slaying Michael V. McAllister, 26, after entering his home, appeared for preliminary hearing today before Police Judge Brady. William Chidlers, proprietor of the lodging house at 545 McAllister street, where the corpse was found in a box couch, Miss Clara Lueckens who runs the rooming house on Golden Gate avenue where Mrs. Pamas took refuge after the killing; the attorney general and state banks here. They will be displaced until the end of the week. The plan of showing the flower in the box was disrupted, instead of being seen, and never saw in the "not" auditorium.

CHILDREN'S FLORA ON EXHIBIT.
SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 5.—Flowers, mostly caryanthemums grown by school children, will be shown at the first National and State Banks here.

MUTE CARGO D DRIVER HELD

" Allen Forgets His Naturalization Papers; Held at Quebec.

ALLEN, Nov. 5.—Thought Mrs. Allen, of this city, disposed ready to be used for war purposes of getting them. Their papers were not presentable, so he had to cover their transportation to the fact that A. L. (Scott) Allen, said driver who more than once took them to victory, in the last two years, was driving now.

Allen's naturalization papers, which he started for France and sent into that country, have been heard by way of his driver's presentation. He up at Quebec on his way to the port from which he proposed to go if he could establish the fact of illegal citizenship. Back in Seattle is a naturalization paper which he sent to him when there that rushed to him at once.

war times passport and other's are stricter than ever in the entries, and although Scott wants to go to Canada with his 100 dollars, about as analysis as any would be, the usual amount of red tape be unbound. The first red is Scotty that he is really an American. This was done in Scotland, and in Seattle in 1914 and has to be latter fact to get to his desire.

Seattle friends are digging today trying to find the naturalization papers and hurry them on to the government. The naturalization papers which Mrs. Darling and Allen in common were disposed of to the government when an agent there on a recent purchasing trip in Alaska, asked for very much and dispatch service in the Vassarians and elsewhere in the war zone. A highly trained and speedy dog, several times had won the highest in the annual all-Alaska sweepstakes. Darling, who resides on Piedmont in this city, is well known in social literary circles about the bay, as the owner of a collection of the most famous Greek fables but as the of intimate tales of the frozen land of many poems and bits or with the tang of the ice pack rhythms. Allen is also the possessor of some of his friends, where he lived on several occasions.

FOOTBALL STARS OF YORE TO DINE CHILD WELFARE WORK DISCUSSED

Famous California Varsity Men to Gather at Pre-Contest Banquet.

BERKELEY, Nov. 5.—The greatest gathering of graduates in the history of the University of California has been called the booster banquet of university alumni to be held tonight in the Merchants Exchange building, San Francisco. Notable men will gather around the table, and among those present are but of minor importance as compared to the real objective—that of studying child welfare and doing child betterment work."

—Mrs. A. L. Whitman.

The men present will range from captives of the early days to stars of 1912, 1913 and 1914. Paul Hall, captain of the first two football teams of the University of California that won the famous Pacific football statue which now adorns the college campus will be among the speakers for the evening.

He will be, among other football heroes, "Shock" Green, Johnson, Stinson, Harry Hudson, "Orie" Overall and Joe Gandy. They will sit at a special table reserved for them, and they will make one-minute speeches, telling something of the "old game" which has become enshrined in the hearts of lovers of the sport on the Pacific coast in the last thirty years.

MANY CELEBRITIES.

But these are not the only celebrities who will be present at this extraordinary banquet. Governor Hiram W. Johnson, a California alumnus, will be here to speak a few words about college spirit. And President Benjamin Ide Wheeler will be present to speak. President of Washington University, the rival of California on the morrow, and Professor Edmund O'Neill.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS.

Among the others who will make short speeches in honor of the return of the great team will be Douglas Brokman, Allen Channing, Charles H. Davis, Milton Schwartz, H. H. Phifer, Scott Hendricks, Gurney Newlin, Farnham Griffiths, Supreme Justice Harry A. Melvin, Warren Olney Jr. and Federal Judge W. W. Morrow—a distinguished aggregation of Berkeley alumnus glad to have gathered in one spot which stirred their blood in other days.

In addition to the short, quick-time speeches, there will be songs from members of the old varsity glee clubs and the De Rovin Club rendering selections dear to the old graduates of those days.

Bridgette, C. S. and Thomas Purland will arrange for the presence of all the old-timers in the various chapters that can be reached for this occasion.

INSTALLED PICTURES IN HALL OF FAME

Franklin School Honors Mrs. Hearst, Markham, McClymonds and Chandler:

Pictures of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, Edwin Markham, J. W. McClymonds and J. F. Chandler were formally installed upon the walls of the Franklin school hall of fame this evening, preceding a symposium of warmly appreciative speeches made on the achievements of the chosen new members.

On the platform below the wall sat Mrs. Hearst, the former school superintendent and the former principal, with the present principal, George Edgar, Miss Elizabeth Stern, Mrs. Kate Morris, Miss Florence Brown and Mrs. J. H. Steele, president of the Parent-Teacher's association under whose auspices the ceremony was planned.

Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, of the favored quartette, alone was absent, but was tribute paid to her in a speech by Miss Florence Brown, who pronounced her "an ideal woman of the State for children to follow." Miss Brown further described Mrs. Hearst's many good works along educational lines, telling of her efforts in establishing kindergartens, which she founded and the young women whom she aided to become self-supporting.

McClymonds and Chandler, both of whom received ovations from the audience of parents and crowded crowds at the opening of the school, spoke of the work of the school, spoke of "A great change has come over the school department in the last quarter of a century," said the former today.

Alderman, a single room, will formerly be an assembly room, was used as a meeting place for various local organizations.

Tilden Lumber company fitted up the room in a very neat and comfortable.

The illumination and other features of the new rooms for the little folks compare favorably with those of the biggest libraries in the state.

child present who gave him his address.

For an hour afterward the white-haired scribe was kept busy receiving cards with requests for autographed verse.

The cultural group also took part in the program, the band playing enthusiastically and other future citizens offering songs and recitations.

The Franklin school hall of fame is intended to present to the public the illustrious of California whose careers may prove inspiring. Previous to last night the gallery included portraits of Luther Burbank, Joaquin Miller and Jack London. The portrait of Mrs. Hearst was a gift from her son, the late George Hearst, to whom she left the school, and the Swett school, the school had only the ground the stood upon. Playrooms are just as necessary as school rooms," he concluded.

Government Officials Delve Into Bringing Stowaways to San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—United States Immigration Commissioner Edward White and United States Attorney Fred W. Preston continued their inquiry this morning into the smuggling of eighty-eight Chinese stowaways across the Pacific on the Pacific Mail liner Mong Kok. The new Commissioner of Customs and Revenue has had the effect of bringing in the Angel Island officials to greater effort in uncovering the conspirators responsible for the plot to land the coolies.

CAMINETTI NOT TO TAKE PART.

Caminetti declares that he will not take part in the probe. He did not come to San Francisco for the purpose of investigating the matter in hand, but is merely making one of his regular trips to his home town and to visit his family there. Nevertheless, Caminetti has been in contact with Commissioner White and has issued instructions that the industry be fully prosecuted and that investigators, officials or customs officials who may be involved to the slightest degree be prosecuted by the investigators.

It has been admitted by the officials engaged in the probe that there must have been collusion between immigration officers or customs officers and the leading conspirators in the smuggling plot. Nevertheless, no complaints have so far been filed and yesterday's questioning of customs guards was disappointing, according to Preston.

CAPTAIN'S REQUEST DENIED.

Although Captain Emery Rice and First Officer Ryland Drennan of the Mongolia have asked permission to leave port, when the vessel sailed November 8, it has been denied. Both have been thoroughly questioned, but Preston says he wants them as witnesses.

"So far we have not sufficient evidence upon which to issue a warrant," declared White this morning, "but the investigation may lead to something. The men questioned by us so far have made no incriminating admissions either as affecting themselves or others."

WEST VIRGINIANS TO ACCEPT JAIL TERMS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—William Birch, 2d Charles Edder, sons of prominent West Virginia farmers, who eloped from Wheeling with Miss Weston Tindale and Miss Florence Butcher and came to California in an automobile, obtained their pleas to guilty before Judge Dooling today. They were charged with violating the Mann white slave act and were sentenced to five months in the county jail.

A notable point was raised in behalf of the pair by their attorney, who claimed that they had not violated the law as the transportation of the girls had been by automobile, belonging to one of the accused, and not by common carrier.

The court overruled the demurral, and the two young men decided to take their medicine.

HIS FATE A MYSTERY.

The attempts of the police and of friends of William H. Cook to discover his fate have been unavailing according to his brother, John J. Cook, 5401 Normandie avenue. Cook left his home in Michigan and is believed to have come to the bay region. He was mentally unbalanced as a result of a protracted illness.

Heroic 150 Stem Tide of Invasion

Serbians' Scant Band Delays Mackensen

By Associated Press
PARIS, Nov. 5.—"There, Monsieur, when do you go and see how Serbia is going to die," exclaimed Ljuba Jovanovitch, minister of the interior, handing a letter of recommendation to the general staff to Albert Londres, special correspondent of the Petit Journal.

Armed with this letter M. Londres made his way far beyond Palanka, through long lines of retreating ox wagons and endless herds of sheep, plodding through the mud of the Morava valley, without panic, escaping from the Teutons whose voices were heard in the distance.

"At a cross road," writes M. Londres, "a Serbian captain who was waiting for me said: 'I was asked by Colonel Terzich, commanding our division, to take you to our last position. We walked side by side in silence and then came on a plateau."

"That is our last position, Monsieur," said the Serbian officer. "We are on Ossietz plateau. The two others you see at a hundred yards away over there are the plateaus Vaboratz and Michavoltz, which were just taken from us."

"There are no soldiers and asked:

"Where is your line?"

"There it comes," replied the officer.

I saw debouching from a little wood, one by one, with a dignity that brought tears to my eyes, the 150 men whom on this great plateau Serbia had opposed to embattled Germany.

"On retiring from Vaboratz an hour ago," said the captain, "those 150 hid in the wood. Now they are coming out to face the enemy."

The Lieutenant in command took a few steps into a cornfield and shouted a command to his men. They lay down on the edge of the field and deliberately raised their rifles.

"Look, Monsieur," exclaimed the captain. "There are the mountains of Hungary. Behind that pass is the village of Vericate, before which is Von Mackensen. Do you see that blue line a little further on? That is the Danube."

"For sixteen days with their three, five, six and ten-inchers and the rest, the Germans had been blazing away on this fort. They never found on this line a larger number of men than those 150 brave fellows before our eyes, but they had not yet succeeded in preventing the Serbs from seeing the blue line of their Danube when they raised their heads."

"Two days ago it was quite different," my guide informed me. "So many shells have fallen here that its form is completely changed. Do you see the movement below Vaboratz? Those are the advancing Germans. There are about two hundred of them. That is not many, but it is the vanguard of invasion."

"I watched those 150 Serbians who had not moved for half an hour, but who were gazing steadily at the iron curtain stretching up to the sky with nothing to pierce it but their rifles. No, I am wrong!" They raised a proud consciousness of their heroism. They despise Germans who fight only from behind ramparts."

Things went on this way for fully two months. Thorp's friends began to believe that he would never be found. But suddenly word came that Thorp had telegraphed from a point in Indiana to a South Boston bank for some money which he had on deposit there. The bank telephoned to Thorp's young man's parents. His father left immediately for the town in Indiana whence the telegram was dated. There he was overjoyed to find his son safe and sound. The young man had a strange story to tell. His mind had been a blank for two months, and could remember the night he had spent in Clarendon Springs, Va. The next time he came to himself he was in the midst of a large wheat field. He sought out a farm house and was utterly bewildered to learn that he was in Indiana. He inquired the day of the month, and was still more surprised to learn that it was September first, and that he had been missing since he got his bearings. But he could not for his life tell what he had been doing during the two months of his wandering; nor could he tell how he had gotten from his home in Virginia to Indiana, a distance of six hundred miles.

Finally he found Thorp and found him almost normal. Thorp had found almost normal.

But the physicians could not explain why he had amnesia with sphincter. They said that a blow on the head alone could produce this.

That "This is the Life"

BURLINGAME, Nov. 5.—Daniel McElane, who celebrated his one hundredth birthday recently by learning to drive an automobile, last night mastered, with frivolsity and laudatory manner, the one-step.

He was special guest of honor at a party given by Miss Mary Ambrose, his granddaughter, at her home on Howard Avenue. Young folk were dancing and McElane was looking on.

"Looks pretty slick," he said. "Lead me to it."

So they taught it to him, and as soon as he learned it he one-stepped all over the place.

"This is the life," he observed.

SUDDEN SNARK KILLS MAN. TOMAH, Wis., Nov. 5.—Colonel George Graham, 74 years old, was literally started to death here by the sudden shriek of a whistle. When fire broke out in the Clark Mills, the whistle of the concern, which is used to herald fires at that point, was sounded. After the blaze had been put out, the aged man was found sitting upright in his chair. The sudden shriek of the whistle, according to physicians, was too much for his weak heart.

BERKELEY HIGH WINS ITS FOURTH RUGBY CROWN

County Championship Goes to Red and Yellow in Close Game.

Berkeley High won its fourth Alameda county rugby football championship yesterday, beating Oakland Tech by a score of 10 to 11, but the Red and Yellow had to bring every ounce of strength and football knowledge into play. The Tech team with all the tricks against them, pressed the enemy to the limit, and won the score 15 to 3 against them, the ball in their own territory, and with only ten minutes to go, the Tech fought their way through the Berkeley defense for two scores and were on the verge of scoring another one when a Berkeley tackle kicked the ball outside just a yard from the goal line. The game was a hard-fought one, though the backfields of both teams were poor color and fumbles were many. The first half was genuine kick-off football, the second half was running football with the backs getting into the game.

Berkeley, after the kick off, held Tech on the defensive for about five minutes, after which the game swayed up and down, Tech did not get the ball, and the ball to touch. After a series of scrums, Tech started the march down field and a driving play placed the ball on Berkeley's 10-yard line. After a series Tech's star, Leo Fabry, and Saulbaugh, forwards; John Cate, center; Ed Murphy, Carroll Spencer, Charley Meyer, and Dave Duncan sent the latter over the line and brought the Tech running section to its feet.

TECH ON DEFENSIVE.

From then on, up to the last ten minutes of play, the game was all Tech's, and the ball was held by Tech most of the time. A try by Peterson, who was the star of the game, and Muldoon's conversion, placed Berkeley in the lead.

They increased it through scores by McKeown, and Chalmers on passing plays. Peterson converted both tries and the score was 15 to 3.

In the center of the field Johnny Black secured the ball and ran over for a try, but Calden stopped him and started a dash toward Berkeley's goal. A try and conversion would have made the score 18 to 15. Guy was about 15 yards from the goal when the spectators, one of whom stepped in the runner's way and Guy toppled over, was certainly scored. After this play the ball was out of play after ten minutes through an injury. Tech had to give up the ball out of the scrum and its backfield started its final passing rush, but Berkeley's defense was too strong and one of the last attempts was decided with two out and two on. Casey, Redwood's hard-hitting catcher, poked one on nose for a two-bagger, bringing in Chalmers with the running run, who were tied at the time. Calden, Fisher, Casey and Hearn hit hard for Redwood and Cowan for the Stanford team. Lilly in center played a star holding game for the Stanford team, and McKeown and Payne starred for the home team. The score:

FAIR DEAL FOR ALL SIDES URGED

Corporations and Workmen Can Go Hand in Hand, Says Union Leader.

Stating that corporations, despite all statements to the contrary, will deal fairly with unions, if unions will take up their differences in business-like manner, W. H. Joseph, president of Oakland Branch No. 507, International Union of Steam and Operating Engineers, informed international officers last evening at St. Paul's King Hall of the friendly relationship between corporation heads and engineers in Oakland.

International officers, together with delegates here from the East as delegates to the American Federation of Labor gathering at San Francisco, were honored guests last evening of Oakland Branch No. 507 and Ladies' Auxiliary of the International Union. The latter organization, one which works in conjunction with the engineers—their sons, husbands and fathers—in promoting their welfare. International officers present were: M. Comerford, president, Chicago; M. Kelly, third vice-president, New York; M. Murphy, fourth vice-president, New York; M. G. Hannahan, general secretary, Chicago.

PRESENT FOR OFFICER.

As a token of their appreciation for the work done in the interests of the union by the ladies auxiliary, the auxiliary and business agent of the local organization, his fellow members, the auxiliary and friends, presented him with a chest of silver, a gold watch and fob. The presentation was made by President Joseph.

International President Comerford remarked on the wisdom of a woman's auxiliary and complimented the local branch for the co-operation afforded it through the work of its women folk workers.

RAISES WOMEN.

Samuel Donahue, business agent for the Alameda County Building Trades Council, informed the assemblage that if every branch of organized labor had a woman's auxiliary every effort of union labor would be achieved. Improper talks were made by other officers and members.

A dinner concluded the gathering. The officers of local No. 507 are: W. B. Joseph, president; W. N. Munro, vice-president; T. J. Roberts, financial secretary and agent; N. J. Lindgren, recording secretary and treasurer. The officers of the Woman's Auxiliary are: Mrs. Gertrude Amadeo, president; Mrs. Mary Roberts, vice-president; Miss Susan T. recording secretary; Mrs. Rheta Monroe, financial secretary; Mrs. J. Lewis, treasurer.

"TASKS THAT I DISLIKE."
TO BE PASTOR'S THEME

Rev. John H. Campbell of Cavalry Congregational church has announced a series of "Sunday Evening Talks" for the coming month which bears the unique title, "November Tasks That I Dislike."

November 7—"Raking Up the Leaves." November 14—"Getting Out the Umbrellas."

November 21—"Carving the Turkey." November 28—"Saying Goodbye to the Fair."

Campbell states that these are "bonny sources of inspiration but when translated into vital terms lead into the midst of weight." The addresses will be given at 7:30 Sunday evenings in Cavalry church at Thirty-sixth and Grove streets.

PLAN COMPROMISE IN RIDGE BY-PASS SUIT

WOODLAND, Nov. 5.—A conference in an effort to reach a compromise will be held here between attorneys in the suit of the Knights Landing Ridge District against Elsie L. Hershey.

The action is for the condemnation of eighty acres of the defendant's lands for building the Knights Landing Ridge bypass.

TOOK A NEIGHBOR'S ADVICE.

KILLED BEFORE FIANCÉE'S DOOR

Murder of Youth Is Mystery;
Suspect Is Under Arrest.

By Associated Press.
FOOT COLLINS, Colo., Nov. 5.—Walter White, 19, was probably fatally shot here last night in front of the home of his sweetheart, Miss Laura Street, 18. A charge of buckshot entered White's abdomen. No one saw the shot fired.

Thomas Warren, 18, shortly after the shooting was taken into custody by the police pending investigation.

Warren, convicted on a charge growing out of his infatuation for Miss Street, had just completed a three-year term in the penitentiary. He returned to Fort Collins three weeks ago on parole.

COPULE KILLED.
REDYALE, Colo., Nov. 5.—The bodies of Claude F. Jacobs and his wife were found at their ranch house near here yesterday. Each bore bullet wounds. The bodies were found by the four-year-old daughter of Jacobs, who returned home from a neighbor's house where she, with her two-year-old sister had been carried by Jacobs a short time before.

Domestic trouble is assigned as the cause of the shooting.

SIR ROBERT LAIDLAW DEAD.

By Associated Press.
PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 5.—H. J. Comerford received a telegram today from London announcing the death there yesterday of Sir Robert Laidlaw, aged 58, president of the World's Sunday School Association.
